President's Comments

The arrival of spring 2010 has brought various events to my life. The most personal being a diagnosis of cancer. Thankfully, it was discovered early and by undergoing robotic surgery in Baton Rouge, I am now recovering well. I appreciate all the prayers of my friends and the encouraging cards and calls.

One event that I am very delighted about is the Twentieth Anniversary of the AGHS Charter which was obtained in March, 1990 and was the highlight of my first tenure as AGHS president. Now in my second tenure, to be able to celebrate this anniversary is very meaningful to me.

Even before receiving our charter, AGHS was very active in the parish collecting and preserving the history of Allen Parish and it's families.

For a few years with the generous loan of the Kinder Methodist Church annex as our meeting place, we hosted an annual event called "Pioneer Days". They were fun and interesting times for people to display artifacts and craft items that had historic value to our area. There were demonstrations of spinning, weaving and other crafts that were part of our ancestors's lives. Adding to the fun atmosphere, we served refreshments reminiscent of by-gone days and had music that our ancestors loved. Perhaps, some day we will do this again.

We now enjoy a permanent location in the genealogy room of the Kinder Branch of the Allen Parish Library. As a society and individually, our members have purchased and donated books to be added to the library's collection of genealogy and local history books. Various people with roots in Allen Parish have been generous about donating old newspapers, photos, etc. to add to our files.

I hope that 20 years from now AGHS will remain active and continue to preserve and educate others about our parish and the great families that lived and worked here.

from the editor.....Fran Clemmons

Welcome Springtime!!! After a very chilly, wet winter, our Parish is more than ready for the Spring season. It has arrived early and doesn't last as long as we would like, but we can surely enjoy the spectacular display of the azaleas, redbud trees, bridal wreaths, and dogwood trees that are in full bloom throughout the area. I love this time of the year with the signs of renewed life everywhere. Let us all enjoy the beauty that spring has to offer.

The staff members of the ALLEN GENEALOGICAL and HISTORICAL SOCIETY want to encourage and welcome everyone to come to our meetings and take part in genealogical research. Mark your calendars for upcoming Society meetings: TUESDAY, 10:00 A.M. – JULY 6TH , and OCTOBER 5TH . Guest are always welcome and we have coffee and good fellowship at every meeting.

We would love to hear from you. CROSSROADS needs your help with gathering genealogical information for future publications. We hope everyone enjoys the articles submitted in the issues of CROSSROADS. We would like to thank Ms. Ethel Sacker for the article she submitted for publication in this issue, and we encourage and welcome articles from all of our readers. Let the Society hear from you. Please share family histories with us for future publications.

Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Enjoy the spring time weather and have a great summer and attend your family reunions that may be going on in the next few months.

This packrat has learned that what the next generation will value most is not what we owned, but the evidence of who we were and the tales of how we loved. In the end it's the family stories that are worth the storage.

APRIL PROGRAM

ALLEN GENEALOGICAL and HISTORICAL SOCIETY CELEBRATE WITH OPEN HOUSE

The AGHS hosted an open house in the Kinder Library on April 6th, 2010, in honor of the Societies twentieth anniversary of receiving it's charter. Refreshments were served to all that came by to browse through the family history books, pictures, and articles that the Society has to offer on genealogy research. The members were on hand to talk with the guest and to answer any questions asked about genealogy.

The Allen Genealogical and Historical Society was organized May of 1985, to gather, process and preserve genealogical material. The AGHS is a non-profit, educational organization. The number one goal of AGHS is to promote interest in genealogy, to encourage and assist it's members in genealogical research.

On March 7th, 1990, the then Secretary of State, Mr Fox McKeithen, signed the Articles of Incorporation of ALLEN GENEALOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The Society home is in the genealogy room of the Kinder Branch of the Allen Parish Library. The Society meetings are held in this genealogy room on the first Tuesday of January, April, July, and October at 10:00 A.M.. Programs include a variety of topics of interest to genealogists. The Society has so much available for research purposes with family history books, old photos, newspapers, etc, in our files.

The spring of 2002, the first issue of the AGHS quarterly publication, CROSSROADS was printed and mailed out to all the members. CROSSROADS started with issue #201, and with the current issue is at issue # 234.

Long live the AGHS and the interest of genealogists to keep digging up them bones!!

THE MYSTERY of GREAT-GRANDFATHER GORDON'S BIBLE by Ethel Sacker

Little is known of my great-grandfather Thomas Jefferson Gordon. The 1870 Census for Calcasieu Parish has him born in Alabama; the 1880 Census has him born in Louisiana. He married Lucretia Bushnell of Rapids Parish about 1865. Their first child was baptized in 1867, records found in the Church Point Catholic Church. That is the first record found on Thomas Jefferson Gordon. No records have been found on him beyond that.

Lucretia Bushnell was the daughter of Matthew Bushnell and Roseanna Charbonneau. Her lineage is documented all the way back to England through Connecticut, USA.

In 1870 and 1880, Thomas Jefferson and Lucretia are living in Wards 3 and 9, which was the settlement of Hecker, Louisiana along the Calcasieu River. They had a large family of seven; the first two children (sons) died between 1870 and 1880. My grandfather, William Cornelius Gordon, was the third child, followed by twins, Idolph and Rudolph Gordon, John Winters Gordon, and Madora Gordon born in 1883. All of these children and births are written in pencil on a torn page of an old family Bible.

The body of the Bible has been lost for many years, no one seems to know what happened to it; only four pages remain with writing that is barely legible. The pages have been neglected and scribbled over, like child's scribble.

Written in a beautiful script handwriting, in the torn, yellowed pages of this old Bible, which has been handed down for several generations, and supposedly belonging to great-grandpa Thomas Jefferson Gordon, are the following lines;

Alice Smithart departed this life 16 March 1868

William Smithart was borned 14 November 1865

Rachel Clark (written in several places)

John Gordon Plaquemine P O Iberville Parish

Albert Gordon was born 1853

William was married ----- (unable to read)

There is other writing that cannot be made out.

This story could be called "The Mysterious Smithart-Gordon-Bushnell Family Connections".

In my past family research, I had no knowledge of any Smithart family connections. My cousin, Sue, and I both had copies of the pages, and our bloodhound instincts being aroused, we began a search for clues to the mystery in the Bible. We put out queries, studied census pages, explored the internet, studied obituaries, visited Libraries, got copies of any vital records we found, roamed cemeteries, studied recorded cemeteries, joined family research websites, anything we felt would give a clue to the mystery.

Much to our surprise, we made a major break-through when we found out that the William Smithart, born November 14, 1865, is buried in the Archie Clark Cemetery in Starks, Louisiana. He was married to Rachel Clark, whose name is in the Bible. Rachel Clark was born April 1869 to John H. Clark and Rachel Drake. These people are all buried in the same Cemetery in Starks. My excitement knew no bounds.

From this information I learned that the father of William Smithart in the Bible was James William Smithart, born in Mississippi, the Confederate Soldier buried in a Starks Cemetery. Further research revealed that James William Smithart, the Confederate Soldier, was married first to an unknown wife in Mississippi, (first name Alice), and came to Louisiana, supposedly after her death, with his son William. He then married Ellen (Ellender) Drake, daughter of John Drake and Elizabeth Ashworth. John Drake and Elizabeth "Betsy" Ashworth Drake are both buried in Doyle Cemetery in Starks.

My confusion and excitement was growing by each discovery. What connection did these Smitharts have with my great-grandparents, Thomas Jefferson Gordon and Lucretia Bushnell? William Smithart's wife, Rachel Clark, died 14 February 1939 at the age of 70 years. After her death, William Smithart married Loviann Johnson Pool, widow of Matthew Pool. On the Marriage application for William Smithart and Loviann, he gives his parents as Jas. Wm. Smithart and Alice Smithart. He also stated that he was previously married to Rachel Clark, so we know this is the right person.

So now we knew that the Alice Smithart in the Bible, who departed this life 16 March 1868, was the first wife of James William Smithart, and the mother of William Smithart who married Rachel Clark.

My journey has had many interesting twists and turns, and is not complete. I do not know the maiden name of Alice Smithart; family members strongly feel she was a Gordon by birth. No evidence of this has been found. However, since the Bushnell line has been well documented and no Alice found, we are in favor of the Gordon name. The name "Alice" has been carried down in the family. Rachel Clark and William Smithart named their first daughter "Alice". Madora Gordon, who married Theodule Fontenot, and a sister to my grandfather, named her first daughter, "Alice". This child is buried in the Hebert/Hecker Cemetery, near where the children of Thomas Jefferson Gordon and Lucretia Bushnell were raised.

Some of the other names found in the Bible have not been identified, but our search goes on. I am anxious to follow the trail of the confederate soldier, James William Smithart of Mississippi, who is supposedly buried in an unmarked grave in a Starks Cemetery.

I am in awe of the fact that some simple, unknown names in an old Bible can create such a mystery, and lead to the discovery of an untold wealth of information on Ancestors of my past, some never known before, and reveal secrets long hidden.

There are so many unanswered questions. What brought the Smitharts from Mississippi to Louisiana? What was their connection to the Gordons and Bushnells?

History has Ellender Drake, the second wife of James William Smithart, and step-mother to William Smithart, listed as Mulatto, or “Redbone”.

Who was the John Mathais Bushnell who was living near Matthew Bushnell and Roseanna Charbonneau in Rapids Parish and ended up in Calcasieu Parish, marrying into the Bloodworth and Smithart families? Could he be a descendant of Lucretia Bushnell Gordon’s Bushnell family side? She had two brothers who were killed in the Civil War. Could one of these have fathered a son by the name of John Mathais Bushnell? ( ‘Mathais’ is a variation of ‘Matthew’). He certainly fits the time frame.

It is my hope that someone, somewhere, has more information, and that many questions will be answered, and that I can write a sequel to this mystery in the Bible of my great-grandfather, Thomas Jefferson Gordon.

BOOK REVIEWS

We would like to encourage our members to send in a book review of any book you think would be of interest to other members. The review can be on a Historical novel, that includes this area, or a family history. Let us hear from you!

The following book review was taken from "KINFOLKS", Vol. 33 No. 4-December 2009.

THE FAMILY HISTORIES OF DUPRE, TERREBONNE, FONTENOT, GARLAND, STAGG and DUBUISSON by ANN DUBUISSON is a well-researched and informative book that follows the male DUPRE line and also gives the family history of their wives, as well as that of several associated families, including the GUIDRY, KEISER, GUILLORY, MALLET, BRIGNAC, LASTRAPES, and other families. The first twelve chapters cover the life and descendants of LOUIS LE COMPTE DUPRE (1654-1715), who arrived at Canada from France and became a fur-trading merchant and the second seigneur of Terrebonne, north of Montreal. It also tells of the FONTENOT family, from their lives at Fort Toulouse and Fort Tombecbe, Alabama, to their move to Louisiana in 1764, when the British took over the territory. It reveals the harsh life with which the settlers had to contend at the two French Forts. Part II of the book give the history of the children of LAURENT DUPRE (1746-1783), the son of JACQUES DUPRE and ANNE MARIE BIENVENU. One of his sons, JACQUES DUPRE (1773-1846), became the acting govenor of Louisiana and was reputed to be the largest cattle owner in Louisiana at the time. Part III gives the life of LAURENT DUPRE (1849-1905), an attorney in Opelousas, who married MARIE CELESTE GARLAND. The rest of the book is devoted to the male DUPRE lines, and ends with the marriage of ROSA LASTRAPES DUPRE (1878-1973) to EDWARD BENJAMIN DUBUISSON. This book is an important research tool for genealogists whose lineage is connected with these families.

SOMETHING OF INTEREST!!!

“PAQUES PAQUES”

Since Easter just took place, I would like to share with you the tradition of “egg paquing”. Just before school let out for the Spring Break/Easter week, my granddaughter Baily came in from school and told her mother that she would need three hard boiled eggs to bring back to school to be used in an Easter game of pocking eggs. She asked about the game as she didn’t know what it meant. I knew a little about it, because some of my cousins would pock eggs on Easter. Baily and I got on line and got some information about egg pocking. The most common suggestion as to the origin of egg pocking came from Greece and Belgium, where it was called battling eggs. Here in South Louisiana, the Cajun French custom of “egg paquing” goes hand and hand with eating candy and hunting for Easter eggs. The french word for Easter, is Paques. Egg paquing involves family contests of hitting eggs together until they break. The person whose egg has cracked will then have to forfeit his egg to the winner. The custom is carried out in Cajun communities throughout South Louisiana and is referred to as “Paques Paques” which means “Easter Easter” in French, but is also a play on words because the sound of an egg tapping on another egg makes a sound like “poc poc”.

My family never did the pocking game but I know of a family in our community that follow the tradition of egg paquing every Easter. Mrs. Dot White, from the Indian Village Community told me her family has done this custom always. The whole family from the elders down to the smallest children would paque eggs. Her family still follow this tradition at Easter.
