Allen Parish Genealogy Society is keeping family file folders, which contain family histories, pedigrees and family group sheets, newspaper clippings, and other items of interest. These offer an excellent source for research.

Anyone interested can get further information from any Society member. The Library will stock the necessary forms, and any member will be glad to assist you.

All new members are asked to supply a five generation Ancestor Chart, which will be kept in a file in the Genealogy Room of the Kinder Library, and plans are to compile copies of these into a book.

A blank five-generation ancestor form is included in each issue of CrossRoads.

Of interest:

Apology and correction:

To new member, FRANCES DOGA: Thanks for correcting us on the spelling of Frances with an "E" instead of an "I". We also made an error on her mailing address. We value all input.

To: Ingrid C. LeBlanc: Her 5-generation ancestor chart did not print out well, so we are submitting a printed version of her original.

Thanks to: Martha Rider for continuing her Mother's, (Gladys Rider) membership; after her Mother's death. She is doing this to pay honor to her Mother.

From the Editor: Our President, Ramona Bruce, has resigned effective immediately; due to health problems. Vice-President, Betty Sarver, will serve as interim President for the rest of the year. Ramona will remain as a member. Thanks, Ramona, for your years of service as President.

The Society is collecting and filing Obituaries and plans to compile these into Book form in the future, and will accept any obituaries donated, especially of earlier years.

We are making slow progress on indexing Bro. Leeds Church records, due to a lack of volunteer help. Plans are to compile all records into several volumes, according to specific churches. Volume 1 "Marriages and Funerals" has been completed, and is for sale. Indexing of Volume 1 (Kinder Ch. Book 1), has been done, and book is at the printers. Should be completed, and will be for sale by the time this issue is out. These volumes will be available for sale to anyone, and it is not too early to put in a request for the books when they become available. The Kinder Library will keep a record of requests.

This year, 2003, is the Centennial of the establishment of the Town of Kinder. There will be activities in conjunction with the Bicentennial of the State of Louisiana. Any material pertinent to the early history of Kinder will be appreciated, such as family histories, pictures, stories, books, old ledgers, or memories in written form. These will be put on exhibit in the Library.

Some Youngs and LeJeunes

Submitted by: Ethel Fontenot Sacker

There's an old cemetery located off of highway 26 in Mittie, Allen Parish, Louisiana, known as the Old Young Cemetery. Only two marked graves are still found, but apparently at a much earlier time, there were many more graves. Time and the elements have destroyed all but these two.

The two remaining marked graves are: Julian Young b. 1802; d. 1894 and his daughter: Louvinia Young b. May 1840 d. Oct. 1881

Supposedly the Cemetery was located not far from the Old Julian Young Home Place. Louvinia Young's name is found spelled in 2-3 different ways: Lovenia seems to be the most used spelling, although her grave marker has Louvinia. She was married to Andrew J. Young.

Searching the Simmons Cemetery between Oberlin and Mittie, Lovenia Young's grave is listed with no dates. Next to her is the grave of Andre Young b. Aug. 18, 1832 d. Mar. 3, 1920. His grave is marked (CSA Vet, Pvt. Co. A. 28 La Inf.) H/o Lovenia Young. Other members of her family are located in the same area of Simmons Cemetery.

Having LeJeune blood flowing in my veins, and being somewhat familiar with the interchangeable use of "Young" and "LeJeune" surnames, I became a little fascinated by the tale of the Old Young Cemetery, with its two lonely graves. Much has been written about the changes made in the LeJeune and Young names. My early ancestors were known as LeJeunes: Rodolph LeJeune born in 1860, in Church Point, LA, was my great grandfather (on my father's mother's side). Tracing the line back from him, I find the families were called LeJeune. So my family line stuck with the LeJeune version of the name.

According to research, Lovenia Young was the daughter of Julian (Julius) Young and Louise Eliza LeJeune Young. Julian and Louise Eliza were married Sept. 25, 1827 in St. Landry Catholic Church. Julian's birth is listed as Aug. 23, 1806 in St. Landry Parish, La, and his name is listed as LeJeune. His death is listed as 1894 in Mittie, La, with name recorded on his grave marker as: Julian Young.

Julian was the son of Joseph Ozier LeJeune and Euphrosine Carrier. Joseph's name is found as LeJeune in some earlier documents, and as Young in others. So the names were used interchangeably for many years, and evolved over as many years, resulting in thousands of Joseph's descendants now being Youngs instead of LeJeunes. From some information sources, it appears that the name change was an "accident" which started at the taking of the 1810 census. The census taker seems to have translated LeJeune to Young, since the French word "Jeune" really means "young" in English. The family of Joseph's brother, Blaise, was not affected by this name change.

So in my limited research of the Youngs and LeJeunes, brought about by my interest in the Old Young Cemetery, I found that I am indeed related to Louvinia/Lovenia Young. Family Tree Maker relationship calculator figures I am 2nd. Cousin 4 times removed.

Early Overland Migratory Routes to Alabama

There were two primary overland routes used by Pioneers to move into the area now known as Alabama, the Federal Road and the Huntsville Road. In 1806, a horse path for postal riders through a Malaria-infested wilderness, was opened through the Creek Nation, stretching from middle Georgia to Coastal Alabama. It was widened into a military road starting in 1811 in anticipation of the War of 1812, running from Fort Wilkinson near Milledgeville, Georgia to Fort Stoddert at the Mount Vernon Landing on the Mobile River, just east of present day Mount Vernon, Alabama. The Federal Road carried thousands of pioneers and directly contributed to the dramatic increase in Alabama's population between 1810 and 1820.

The Federal Road was a major influence in the settlement of the Mississippi Territory during the period between the Louisiana Purchase and the removal of the Creek Indians.

The Huntsville Road was the main thoroughfare for settlers coming from the Tennessee Valley into Alabama, running from Huntsville through Blountsville, Jonesborough and Bucksville into Tuscaloosa.

Many of the pioneers who settled in Mississippi and those who migrated on into Louisiana used one of these routes, thus they are extremely important to researchers of this area.

Excerpts from Early Court Records in Natchez and Adams Co. MS

“Natchez (MS) Court Records, 1767-1805: by May Wilson McBee.

Kinder, Louisiana Smittie Says: By Elmer Smith

60 YEARS AGO

(1929)

Coming from almost every parish in Southwest Louisiana and with some from out of the state, members of the Chachere family, pioneer Louisiana family, held their annual meeting Saturday in Kinder at the Nolle Chachere farm.

Nearly 200 people, representing an age scope from infant to octogenarian, were present.

James O. Chachere of Opelousas was continued as president of the family association and the A. R. Burleigh place (the old Chachere home) in Opelousas, was selected as the next meeting place, August 25 is the regular date of the meeting.

It took two 16-month old calves, which dressed weighed 440 pounds, to feed the large gathering. The meat was skillfully barbecued by Madison Langley of Kinder.

In addition to the barbecue, 100 pounds of cakes, 100 loaves of bread, 100 gallons of lemonade, many gallons of coffee and a large amount of pickles were required.

A whole case of lemons was used, 490 in number, to make the large tank of lemonade.

The Chachere farm in Kinder is an ideal location for an out-of-door meeting, plenty of shade, long tables with seats, and two large barbeque ovens having been built for such occasions. One particularly interesting feature of the farm is a pen of about 100 wild ducks, which waddle around as unafraid as tame ducks.

Concerning the age of the custom of family meetings, James O. Chachere mentioned that the meetings had been going on before the time of his father who was born in 1801.

He was pleased with the number of his kin-folk who came from many parishes to be present, and is ready to begin work on the next meeting.

“Uncle Jim”, as all who know him term Mr Chachere, is 84 years old. His philosophy of life is one of “don't worry”, for he believes that worry kills more people and shortens more lives than anything else.

Harmony Cemetery is located on Carpenter Bridge Road.

Directions to cemetery:

Going west on Hwy 190 from Kinder towards LeBlanc, turn right on Cappel Road. This road will dead end. Turn left and go over the bridge. The black top road will take a right, but stay straight-go on the gravel road. This road will take a sharp right. Proceed about 10 miles. There is barely anything but woods. Eventually there will be a clearing for power lines. Look to the left. The cemetery is situated about a block off the gravel road.
