Upon arrival, we will check into the luxurious Hyatt Regency in Schaumburg, IL where this spectacular event takes place for the next three days! You can hit the dance floor right away or just sit back, relax and listen to the wonderful line up of music. Later this evening, we will all meet for an (included) dinner in our hospitality suite.

Day 2: Today you will have the opportunity to attend the Polkafest all day and attend the Polka Mass which will take place in the afternoon. Attending the Illinois Polkafest provides some of the best fun you can have over a February weekend. It has become an annual tradition for many fans from California all the way to the east coast. Whether this will be your first time, or you have been attending for years, you are certain to have a great time travelling with the new friends you meet! If you need to take a little break, you can enjoy the pool and fitness center, or you can do a little shopping at the huge Woodfield Mall which is located just across the street.
