

WOMEN IN LONGVIEW DAY

Celebrating Women Past, Present, Future

P. O. Box 161

Longview, TX 75606

November 2023

Dear Business Friends,

In 1984, a group of dedicated women organized the first Women in Longview Day, an elegant luncheon designed to celebrate women and provide opportunities to learn, network, shop and be inspired. Some forty years later, WILD women continue their commitment to the celebration of women!

WILD women are delighted to present to you Women in Longview Day 2023! WILD is produced by Women in Longview, a non-profit organization. The event includes vendors, a seminar, lunch, entertainment and scholarship awards. Women in Longview Day 2023 will be held at Holiday Inn at 300 Tuttle Circle, in Longview on March 23, 2023. Tickets are available from any WILD member, Texas Bank & Trust's Downtown Branch and Barron's.

Each year, we highlight the accomplishments of women in a variety of professions who impact our local community. The theme of this year's luncheon is Celebrating Women: Present and Future. We will have the pleasure of learning from some of the "Leading Ladies of Longview" and how they impact our community.

You are invited to participate in this year's event as a vendor in the WILD Marketplace. The WILD Marketplace is open to shoppers from 9:00 – 1:00. A Vendor Application for the Marketplace is included that contains all relevant details. Please note that vendor space is very limited and typically fill quickly. The deadline for submission of Vendor Applications is March 3, 2023.
