

WOMEN IN LONGVIEW DAY

A Day Dedicated to the Women of Longview

P. O. Box 161

Longview, TX 75606

December 3, 2021

Dear friends,

In 1984, a group of dedicated women organized the first Women in Longview Day, an elegant luncheon designed to celebrate women and provide opportunities to learn, network, shop and be inspired. Some forty years later, WILD women continue their commitment to the celebration of women!

After a two-year hiatus, your WILD women are delighted to present to you Women in Longview Day 2022! WILD is produced by Women in Longview, a non-profit organization. The event includes vendors, a seminar, lunch, entertainment and scholarship awards. Women in Longview Day 2022 finds us at the remarkable Belcher Performing Arts Center on the campus of LeTourneau University March 24! Tickets are available from any WILD member, Texas Bank & Trust's Downtown Branch and Barron's.

This year's theme is *Celebrating Women* Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow, and is in recognition of women's suffrage 100 years ago and our advancement in the years since. This year's luncheon will feature women across the ages in song and prose. You'll want to be sure to purchase a luncheon ticket so you don't miss a thing!

You are invited to participate in this year's event as a vendor in the WILD Marketplace. The WILD Marketplace will be open to shoppers from 9:00 until 1:00. Enclosed you will find a Vendor Application for the Marketplace reflecting much more detail. Please note that vendor space is very limited and will fill quickly. The deadline for submission of Vendor Applications is March 4, 2022.

For more information, please contact Donna Sharp at dksharp@yahoo.com.

I look forward to hearing from you!

Regards,

Donna Sharp
