

WOMEN IN LONGVIEW DAY

A Day Dedicated to the Women of Longview

P. O. Box 161

Longview, TX 75606

January 15, 2020

Dear friends,

In 1984, a group of interested women organized the first Women in Longview Day, an elegant luncheon designed to celebrate women and provide opportunities to learn, network, shop and be inspired. This annual event is produced by Women in Longview, a non-profit organization which plans and produces Women in Longview Day. The event includes vendors, a seminar, lunch, keynote speaker and scholarship presentations. Event organizers expect close to four hundred attendees at WILD 2020! Tickets are available from any WILD member, Texas Bank & Trust's Downtown Branch and Barron's.

This year's theme is Celebrating Women Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow, in celebration of women's suffrage 100 years ago, gaining them the right to vote. This year's luncheon will feature women across the ages in song and prose. You'll want to be sure to purchase a luncheon ticket so you don't miss a thing!

You or your organization is invited to participate in this year's event, to be held Thursday, March 26, at the Holiday Inn Infinity Center in Longview. The WILD Marketplace will be open to shoppers from 9:00 until 2:00. The vendor fee is $150 for commercial organizations and $100 for non-profit organizations. Additional tables are allowed for $150 or $100, respectively. Any additional tables are to be provided by vendors. Enclosed you will find a Vendor Application for the Marketplace. Please note that vendor space is very limited, and will fill quickly.

For more information, please contact Donna Sharp at dksharp@yahoo.com.

I look forward to hearing from you!

Regards,
