All Saints' Sunday

We will observe All Saints' Sunday at both services on Sunday, Nov. 5. We will remember church family and friends who have died since our last All Saints' Sunday. This year, we will remember Gary Marker, Roger Coker, Bobby Johnson, Shirley Wohleber, Dan Holland, and Theresa Messenger, Barbara Fowler's mother. If anyone would like to add a family member to this list, let Pastor Laura know, and she will make sure a candle is provided.

We will have special litanies and will remember our loved ones with votive candles for family members. If you are missing your family member, you can light the candle and remember him or her. We will have the table up with the tablecloth and markers for you to write your loved one's name or a message. You are also welcome to put pictures of your loved ones on the table even if they did not die this year. Please join us for this special service.

Thankoffering Sunday

The Women of the ELCA will lead Thankoffering Sunday worship at both services on Sunday, Nov. 12. You can pick up envelopes or boxes for your thankoffering, fill them, and turn them in on Sunday, Nov. 12.

The women take up a thankoffering each year to support a need that has been designated by the Churchwide Women of the ELCA. This year it is for women and children in poverty. Pastor Laura has the Thankoffering Service, which she will adapt to each service and provide copies. She will need several women to participate in each service. She will have copies of the service by Nov. 5.

Agape Thanksgiving Service

The Agape Community Thanksgiving Service will be held at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 21, at the Sardinia Church of the Nazarene. Pastor Kevin Monroe will lead worship, with other pastors taking part. Pastor Laura will give the Thanksgiving sermon, "And One Turned Back," about the Tenth Leper.

Refreshments will be served following worship. Come and celebrate God's blessings with singing and fellowship!

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Rebecca (Shreffler) and Christian Babyak on the birth of a daughter, Seraphina Rosalyn, on Saturday, Sept. 30, at Vanderbilt Wilson County Hospital in Lebanon, Tennessee. She weighed in at 7 lbs 9 oz and measured 21 inches. The family all got home on Monday and are doing well. Proud grandparents are Pastors Ron and Laura Shreffler. Thanks to everyone for your prayers and good wishes.

Living Lutheran Magazine

For many years our Peace Lutheran Sunday School has funded a group subscription for the Living Lutheran magazine, providing this publication to member households that chose to receive it. The ELCA has announced that the November/December, 2023, issue will be the final printed issue.

Citing rising costs for paper, ink and postage, the ELCA has decided to discontinue the printed magazine, and share information electronically through the internet. Some people will find this transition easy to follow, while others who aren't familiar with online services will likely be left behind.

Readers are encouraged to subscribe to weekly, biweekly, or monthly e-digests of Living Lutheran articles. Sign on through social media or fill out the form at the livinglutheran.org/subscribe website to get articles from Living Lutheran delivered to your email inbox.

"Praise the LORD!
Praise the LORD, O my soul!
I will praise the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God all my life long."
Psalm 146:1-2

Dear Friends,

I might have mentioned once or twice, or ten times, that Thanksgiving is my favorite holiday. At least it was when my mom was in charge and I only had to bring scalloped oysters and a couple pies. My mother delighted in having family over for major holidays. It would be good to have her joy—always. Now we pack up our car with turkey and trimmings and drive to my dad's, where I take care of the meal, with Rebecca's help with the sides. Not sure she'll have time to help me this year! But I digress.

I always loved our Thanksgiving Eve services at church, with some of my favorite songs. I loved the Perry Como Thanksgiving show on TV, where he sang "Bless This House." I loved helping my mom as both a child and adult. I loved that there were no presents to buy and that after the big dinner and the dishes were done, it was time for games.

In 1990, as a newlywed, I hosted my parents, my youngest brother, my mother-in-law, and my brother-in-law for Thanksgiving weekend. I was a little stressed as it was my first time to fix the turkey, and I also decided to make two pumpkin pies from scratch, having received two pumpkins from parishioners. I assume it was parishioners. The pumpkins were left on my porch along with a lot of zucchini and summer squash. The pies were delicious. It was a beautiful fall day, and my mom and mother-in-law took a walk into downtown Pomeroy. And in the evening, another clergy couple and a couple from my church joined us for games. As it turned out, that was the last time I would see my brother, Craig, since a snowstorm kept him from getting to our house for Christmas. So that Thanksgiving was special to me.

This year, I have so much to be thankful for—it has been a better year. We reduced our number of ER visits from four (all Pastor Ron) to one this year (me, after breaking my head open in March, leaving a lovely scar). We reduced the number of hospital stays from four to one (all Pastor Ron). Last year, January through August was a nightmare. Just when Pastor Ron seemed to be doing really well, gout and cellulitis struck the Monday before Rebecca's Friday wedding, and we had to take the walker with us to the resort. But he was able to discard the walker to dance the Father-Daughter dance at her reception to Billy Joel's "Lullaby." We were able to laugh hilariously at Christian's and his mother Stephanie's Mother-Son Dance to "Time Warp" from the Rocky Horror Picture Show. Rebecca and Christian had a gorgeous day for their outdoor wedding, and we got to spend time with friends and relatives. My great-nephew, Liam, not quite 3 at the time, decided to go through with the whole ring bearer thing. "I will be brave, Dad," he announced to my nephew. Of course, it helped that Mom was at the end of the aisle with a Snickers bar. It was a wonderful weekend, and God truly blessed us.

But who would have known how quickly we would be blessed again? Four weeks before their first anniversary, Rebecca gave birth to our first grandchild, and she and Christian showed us last week what wonderful parents they are, and how when one is at the end of his/her rope, the other takes over. We have been blessed with a tremendously healthy and bright girl who makes her needs loudly known if clues have not been picked up on, who stares at us in wonder with her dark blue eyes, who smiles at a sweet dream in her sleep. This will be a Thanksgiving to remember for our family as my father will be surrounded by his two great-grandsons and his first great-granddaughter for the first time. I am guessing he will give thanks when we're all out of there! My daughter and son-in-law and my nephew and his wife will probably bring out the games, and cutthroat competition in Trouble, Rack-O, and various other games will ensue. This was my mom's favorite part—when all the grandchildren were busy threatening each other in the midst of mortal Trouble combat.

I wish my mom could see her great-grandchildren—but I am thankful and blessed that my dad will see them. I wish I could get more help with the dishes—but I am thankful and blessed to have a daughter and a niece-in-law who may be able to help because they have married men who will take over with the kids. I am thankful that I get to preach at the community Thanksgiving service and I am able to sing and praise God for God's blessing.

Give thanks for your families. Give thanks for health you do have. Join us at the Sardinia Church of the Nazarene at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 21.

GIVE THANKS!

In Christ,
Pastor Laura

Thank You

Thank you Dorcas Circle and others for providing the meal for our family and friends. Thank you Ron Tracy for playing the organ at our Mom's funeral. God bless you and your loved ones. The families of Debbie Mitchell and Cindy Lewis

A thank you goes out to CW McFarland and his brother, Joe, for getting my ramp put in so quickly! I can go to the mailbox and be outside more now! Sue Bohrer

Agape Quarterly Meeting

Agape will hold its quarterly meeting at 7:00 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 2, here at Peace. We will discuss the upcoming Community Thanksgiving Service and the Feb. 13 Shrove Tuesday Service as well as the holiday food boxes. Pastor Laura, Linda Sue Stephan, and Amy Beyer represent Peace in this ecumenical group. You are welcome to attend to see what is going on in the Arnheim-Sardinia area!

In Christian Sympathy

✠ Our Christian sympathy is extended to the family of Shirley Wohleber, who died Friday, Sept. 22, at the Ohio Valley Manor Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. Funeral services for Shirley were held here at Peace on Tuesday, Sept. 26, with Pastor Laura Shreffler officiating, and interment was in Peace Lutheran Cemetery. Please keep in prayer her daughters and sons-in-law, Debbie and Jim Mitchell, and Cindy and Steve Lewis; grandchildren Brandi Lewis Agoston, Matthew Mitchell, and Heidi Mitchell Hauck; and five great-grandchildren, Averie Agoston, Gavin Agoston, Colton Mitchell, Brantley Hauck, and Remi Hauck. Memorials may be made to the Peace Lutheran Church LYO, Peace Lutheran Church Bariadi Fund, or Hospice of Hope Ohio Valley.

✠ Our Christian sympathy is extended to the family of Daniel Lee Holland, who died suddenly Sunday, Oct. 15, at the Mt. Orab Medical Center. Please keep in prayer his wife, Terry; daughter, Amanda; son, Adam; and mother-in-law, Barbara Montgomery. Graveside services were held at Peace Lutheran Cemetery on Saturday, Oct. 21 with Pastor Jason Galley officiating. Memorial contributions may be made to Peace Lutheran Church or to the Georgetown Fire and EMS, 805 Mt. Orab Pike, Georgetown, OH 45121.

✠ Our Christian sympathy is extended to Mary Taylor and family on the death of her sister, Carolyn Sue Sievers, who died unexpectedly on Tuesday, Oct. 17. Funeral services were held Saturday, Oct. 21, at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Milford Center, Ohio. Burial was at Forest Grove Cemetery in Plain City.

✠ We have received word of the death of Barb Casper in mid-October. Barb was a member of Peace Lutheran Church in Hillsboro, but after the death of her husband a couple years ago, she began attending our church, sometimes at 8:30 a.m. and sometimes at 10:30 a.m. She battled cancer for 20 years. Our prayers go out to her family.

Cemetery Committee

The Cemetery Committee needs another trustee since Marion Berry has moved. If you are interested or want further information, please contact Chuck Cooper.

Thanksgiving and Christmas Food Boxes

Once more, we will fill holiday boxes with food for Agape to give to those in need who have requested assistance. Meals will be given out for Thanksgiving on Monday, Nov. 20, and for Christmas on Sunday, Dec. 18. We can use as many boxes as possible. Please bring them to church on Sunday morning, Nov. 12, or drop them off at the Sardinia Hope Church (formerly Sardinia Methodist) between 1:00 and 5:00 p.m. on Nov. 12.

Items for Agape Food Box Meals:

- 2 cans Green Beans (14-15 oz)
- 2 cans Corn (14-15 oz)
- 2 large boxes of Instant Mashed Potatoes (13.75-15.3 oz)
- 2 jars or 2 cans (or 3 packets) of Chicken or Turkey Gravy
- 2 boxes Stuffing (Dressing)
- 1 box Cake Mix
- 1 can/container Icing
- 2 cans Fruit (15-20 oz)
- 1 large box of Gelatin (Jello) or two (3-oz) boxes

Place each meal in a box or bag along with $12.00 in an envelope for meat and perishable items. Please tape the envelope containing the money inside the box where it is visible.

If shopping for the items is not possible, you may donate money and volunteers will do the shopping for you. We are asking for $25 to cover the cost of the items.

Our LYO members and volunteers will sort and deliver the boxes to the pantry at Sardinia Hope after worship on Nov. 12.

Synod Thanksgiving Service

The Southern Ohio Synod will hold a Synodwide Thanksgiving Service at 4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 18, at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in Upper Arlington. During the service, Bishop Suzanne Dillahunt will install Pastors Tim and Connie Mentzer as assistants to the bishop. Unfortunately, Pastor Laura cannot attend, but if you can go, you will deeply appreciate the worship. Let her know if you want to go and need directions.

Warmth Tree

Well, 'Tis the Season!" everyone, and once again the Sunday School will sponsor a "Warmth Tree." A different twist will be added this year. All the gifts and donations will benefit our local community because we will be working with Brown County Children's Services.

We will still have our $5.00 Wish Angels for those that may not want to shop. We will also collect gifts for children of all ages - items such as socks, gloves, hats, undergarments, baby items, etc. Sometimes Children Services must remove children from homes with only the clothes they are wearing. They also work in conjunction with Brown County Schools and help when needs arise.

The tree will be in place on Dec. 3, the First Sunday of Advent, and continue through Christmas. You may place items either on or under the tree. Any monetary gifts can be placed in the gift box under the tree which will be collected every Sunday after the second service.

Thanks for your generosity during this season of giving and sharing.

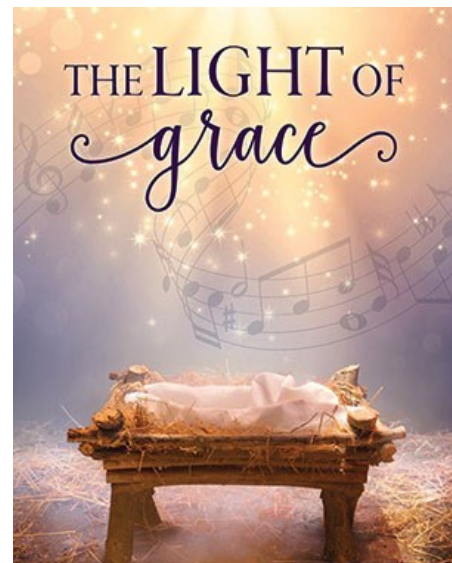

Dorcas Circle Meets

Dorcas Circle will meet at 7:00 p.m. Monday, Nov. 13, in Frey Hall. We will complete plans for our Christmas Dinner, Christmas poinsettias for our senior members, and when to put up the Christmas tree and take it down during the business meeting.

Following the business meeting, Pastor Laura will lead us in Session 4, "Dying for a Drink" from our Bible study, Bad Girls from the Bible and What We Can Learn from Them. This session deals with The Woman at the Well. Please read pages 84-105. Look at Question 4 in the Discussion Questions on p. 241 and the Study Questions for this chapter on pp. 250 and 251. This is our last Bible study until March, when we continue with Delilah.

Advent Readers and Candlelighters

As has been our practice, we will again ask for families to read our opening for each Sunday in Advent and to light the candles on the Advent wreath. Begin looking for the readings and the sign-up sheet for both services soon. A family can be a nuclear family, extended family, or two or more friends from our church family. Help us keep up this tradition.

Congregational Meeting

We will hold our annual congregational meeting at 9:30 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 19. We will vote on the 2024 budget, and we also will vote for new council members.

The Nominating Committee will be asking people to run for council. Please prayerfully consider saying "yes." Voting members are those who have celebrated Holy Communion at least once in the past year and given a contribution of record. We look forward to having our voting members at the meeting.

We hope to have time for an abbreviated Sunday School, Adult Forum, and Catechism following the meeting.

Advent Bible Study

Although Advent doesn't officially start until Sunday, Dec. 3, Pastor Laura will start her annual Advent Bible study on Tuesday, Nov. 28. She will have a sign-up sheet out to see if there are enough people to have Bible studies both at 2:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. We will definitely have the study at 2:00 p.m.

This year's Bible study will be "The Light of Grace: Welcoming God's Amazing Gift of Christ." This finishes up this year's theme of "Amazing Grace." This four-session Bible study will be held on Tuesdays, Nov. 28, Dec. 5, Dec. 12, and Dec. 19. It enlightens the heart, mind, and soul with the Good News that the Light of the World graces us with his presence every day of our lives.

Study and discussion questions, prayers and reflections help us to receive by grace the gifts of hope, peace, joy, and love as Zechariah, Isaiah, Elizabeth, and Mary did. This is for use with the Advent devotional of the same name that you can pick up. Take time to spend with God this Advent.

Psalm reading for Sunday, October 15, 2023

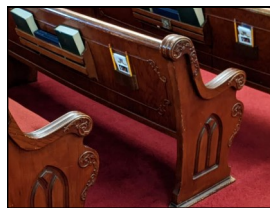

Psalm 23

The work of the shepherd in this time, has passed, but the image of a strong man lifting a sheep from danger to safety or carrying a lamb in his arms still comforts us when disaster strikes.

The shepherd provided everything the sheep needed—pasture, water, protection. Even today our good shepherd, Jesus, provides for us so we “do not want!” No gourmet meals, no fine wines or carefree days, but “everything we need.”

Lead us, we pray, Good Shepherd to your heavenly sheepfold of eternal peace and rest.

JMW

Game Night

The Youth & Family Ministry will host a game night on November 10 at the church. Bring a snack to share and if you have a favorite board game, bring that too! Drinks will be provided. Snacking will begin at 6:30 p.m. and games will start about 7:00 p.m. We will have the Wii set up, a Euchre table, and various other games available. We look forward to an evening of fellowship and a little friendly competition!

Quartermania Thank You

The LYO would like to thank everyone who helped in any way with our Quartermania event. It took a lot of hands to make this event happen - donations for the auction, baked goods for our concessions, help in setting up and cleaning up, coming to the event, advertising the event - the list goes on! Please know that all your support is greatly appreciated and because of it, our group is a little closer to being able to attend the 2024 ELCA Youth & Young Adult Gathering! The event raised a little more than $2200 for our group.

Corn Maze

The Youth & Family Ministry sponsored their annual corn maze trip to Erwin Farms and Corn Maze in Winchester on October 15. This year marked the longest that it has ever taken our group to find its way out of the maze - 1 hour and 40 minutes! The weather was great and the group had a fun afternoon!

Please send news items, corrections and address changes to the church office or peacelutheran@ymail.com

The Beacon is the official publication of Peace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Arnheim, Ohio. It is sponsored by the Church and the LYO to furnish information and inspiration to our congregation and friends.
