ELCA Youth & Young Adult Gathering

During July 15-21, twelve members of Peace had the opportunity to attend the 2024 ELCA Youth and Young Adult Gathering in New Orleans, Louisiana. Addy Bundy and Isabelle Phillips attended the Youth Gathering, along with adult leaders Susan Taylor and Natalie Vogel. Olivia Waits, Grace Humble, Grace Ralston, Emma Vogel, Trent McFarland, Aiden Fowler, Lilie Dearwester, and Tricia McClain attended the Young Adult Gathering. Michael Wood from Resurrection Lutheran Church in Lebanon also traveled with our Young Adult group.

The theme of the gathering was 'Created to Be', centered on Psalm 139:14. Each day had a different theme, including Created to Be BRAVE, AUTHENTIC, FREE, and DISRUPTIVE Disciples!

During our week in 'The Big Easy', we were able to participate in various service projects, worship with other youth from the Southern Ohio Synod, make new friends, learn about the importance of service work, explore a new city and culture, listen to amazing speakers, sing, dance, try new foods (including alligator), learn, shop, ride the street car, visit the Audubon Aquarium, play games, get caught in daily thunderstorms, take communion with 16,000+ of our new friends, celebrate our unique selves and what we are each Created To Be, and so much more (including a little bit of sleep)! Addy, Isabelle, Susan and Natalie even got picked for special seating during the final Mass Gathering!

The different service work opportunities that our group was a part of included feeding the homeless, picking up trash, cleaning, prepping walls to be painted, and assembling hurricane buckets. The group was challenged to meet people from as many states as they could. They were able to meet youth from 33 different states... and 10 different countries! It was a very VERY hot week... but also very memorable, with countless stories. We could never spell it all out here!

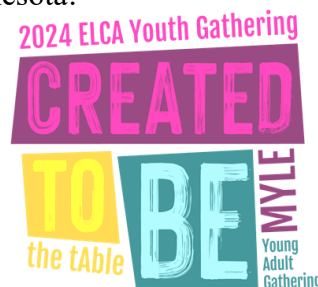

On August 11 at Peace, we were able to celebrate our trip with a combined service, followed by a carry-in meal. Afterward, the group shared their experiences. If you missed this presentation and would like to know more, just reach out to any LYO member, they would be happy to share!

The group would like to send a big, heartfelt THANK YOU to everyone who supported our fundraising efforts over the past few years to make this opportunity possible! We are truly fortunate to have the support that we have... this is not lost on us!

We hope you enjoy the pictures in this Beacon, but there are many more posted on the church Facebook page.

Next up, the 2027 Youth Gathering in Minneapolis, Minnesota!

Love,
Your LYO

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Michael Dearwester and Hayley Throckmorton, who were married Saturday, July 27. Michael is the son of Tricia and Jerry McClain, grandson of Paul and Barbara Hertlein, and the great-grandson of Mary Alice Hertlein. Please keep this couple in prayer that they may continue to follow in God's footsteps, with God always at the center of their marriage and of their personal lives.

Thank You

A big thank you to James Wagel, who took over Adult Forum while Pastor Ron was in the hospital and Monarch Meadows and then recovering at home. What we thought was going to be a couple weeks turned into a much longer stint, so we appreciate his leading Adult Forum.

In Christian Sympathy

Our Christian sympathy is extended to the family of Victoria Lee "Vicki" Miller, who died Thursday, Aug. 15, at home after a lengthy battle with frontotemporal dementia. Vicki was the wife of Carl Miller and the daughter-in-law of Fae Miller. Please also keep in prayer Vicki's sons and daughters-in-law, Matthew and Erica Miller; Jared and Erin Miller; and Aaron and Ashley Miller; daughter, Sally Miller; grandchildren; and brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law. Memorial donations may be made to the Sardinia Church of Christ or Hospice of Hope.

"Give us this day our daily bread."

-- Fourth Petition of the Lord's Prayer

Dear Friends,

There is a Kudzu cartoon that shows the preacher reading the Lord's Prayer from the pulpit: "Give us this day our daily...low-fat, low-cholesterol, salt-free, gluten-free bread...." The last frame has him saying to himself, "I hate these modern translations."

For the past month or so, we have been talking about bread. First, Jesus fed the 5,000 (or more) with bread and fish. Then he tells the multitude that he is the Bread of Life, and unless we eat of this bread and drink of his blood, we will not have life within us. Bread is a staple of life. We must take in nourishment of the right kind to keep our bodies healthy, functioning, and able to maintain life.

It's the same for our souls. Perhaps that's why, of all the images and metaphors Jesus uses to speak of himself, his mission, and his sacrifice, the two most universally accessible and meaningful still remain Bread and Water. Today, just as they did 2,000 years ago, Jesus as the Bread of Life and as Living Water suggests to our hungry, thirsty bodies and souls that in the bread and water he provides the basic sustenance necessary for life. This is the basic "soul food" of the Christian.

Jesus, the Bread of Life, is energized in each one of us by divine yeast—by the Spirit of the living God, who sent Christ to be among us, to be for us, to be in us. To benefit fully from this Bread of Life, we must keep our lives, our spirits, "yeasty"—vital and ever growing. What can you do to create "yeast" in your soul? Try using "Y-E-A-S-T" as an acronym for your spiritual attitude.

Y. "Yes" Are you saying "yes" to nourishing possibilities the Bread of Life is offering you? You've heard of the "placebo" effect. It's when your body thinks it's getting something helpful and healing and so a helpful and healing response is generated throughout your system. But scientists are now talking equally about the flip side of the "placebo" effect, calling it the "nocebo" effect. It's when your inability to think "yes," your negative mood and outlook, your worried fixation on worst-case scenarios, can keep the "nocebo" effect working in your physiology. Because of the "Seven First Words of the

From the Pastor

Christian" — "I can do all things through Christ"—a yeasty Christian thinks "YES."

E. "Energize." Why is it that the Energizer Bunny that keeps going and going is always going somewhere else the night the lights go out and you dig out your flashlight? Unlike batteries, however, a properly maintained yeast colony can keep going and going and going. Did you ever make sourdough bread using "sourdough starters?" "Starter" is really a combination of yeast cultures, flour, and water. You dip out what you need for the day's biscuits, bread, or pancakes, give the rest of the starter a stir, "feed" it more flour and water, and tuck it back in your refrigerator. In pioneer days, women treasured their "starter" and nurtured it along for years. Sometimes one starter was passed on from mother to daughter to granddaughter. That's perpetual energy. And that is what the Bread of Life can bring to your own spirit.

A. "Access" In order to be continually fed by the Bread of Life, we must keep in constant touch with the source of life's true energy supply. Living out the stored power of the Spirit enables us to be fed by Christ's gift anytime we need it. We can access this always available power reserve in various ways. For some of us, direct intercessory prayer brings us closest to God's Spirit and God's love. For others, music opens the soul and sets it resonating with the Spirit. For many, creating and/or contemplating works of art form within us the prayers that enable us to reach out and grab the gift of life. Find your own unique way of accessing that energy of bread...and you will never go hungry.

S. "Search" The crowds we read about in John 6 thought they were seeking the Bread of Life. All they were really looking for was a free lunch. Jesus' words to them, his corrections and counsel, were intended to make the hungering crowd search their spirits for their true motives and desires. Likewise, when we feel filled up with power or contentment, we should search our own spirits to make certain we are feasting on what God provides, not on what our own egos or selfish desires have cooked up.

T. "Trust" If we are filling up on the Bread of Life, we should be able to trust in the Spirit's presence and power in our lives. It is that trust that allows us to take what appears to others as "risks." Trusting in the Spirit lets us "go for it" when conventional wisdom or cautious hedging would advise us to sit on the sidelines. When our spirits are resting in trust, they can do anything. For we know no matter where we go, no matter what difficulties we may encounter, a constant food supply is always at hand, always guaranteed. Only Jesus can satisfy the hungry heart. Only Jesus has the words of eternal life.

In Christ,
Pastor Laura

Back-to-School Giveaway Thank You

Thank you to the Evangelism Committee and especially to Susan Taylor and Elizabeth Watis for the preparation and other work that they did for the Back-to-School Giveaway in August. Thanks to Linda Sue Stephan for getting the Agape churches organized for the hygiene items. The other members of our Evangelism Committee are Lisa Jewell, Joan Yockey, and Pastor Laura.

Dorcas Circle

Dorcas Circle will meet at 7:00 p.m. Monday, Sept. 9, in Frey Hall. Following a business meeting, Pastor Laura will lead us in a study of Michal in our Bible Study, Bad Girls of the Bible and What We Can Learn from Them. Michal was the second daughter of King Saul and the first wife of David. Please read Session 9, "Out of Step," on pages 189-213, Look at Discussion Question 9 on p. 243 and answer the Chapter Nine questions in the Study Guide on pp. 259-260. All women are welcome to attend!

Church Cookbooks for Christmas!

A basket for cookbook recipes is on the Access Hall table, so we hope to see it filling up fast for the new church cookbook.

Dorcas Circle plans to put together a new church cookbook this fall. What do we need from you?

Recipes! Favorite family recipes, entrees, breakfast dishes, side dishes and salads, desserts, breads, even household hints. Encourage your children and grandchildren to come up with recipes or anything they want to share - we will have a section for them as well. You can turn in recipes from now until Monday, Sept. 30.

Dorcas Circle will not be working with an outside company, but will put the book together themselves, including binding and covers. This will be a fundraiser for the circle, and the price has not yet been decided. The cookbooks should be ready for sale by Oct. 31. The cookbooks will make great Christmas presents for family and friends!

Agape Summer Lunches

This summer our congregation packed and delivered 114 lunches each week for the school children in the Sardinia area. Thanks so much to Susan Taylor and Elizabeth Waits and their daughters for food shopping! Thanks to everyone who volunteered to pack lunches Thursday evenings and/or drove and delivered on Fridays. You are much appreciated. Thanks to Linda Sue Stephan for keeping things organized.

Southern Ohio Synod Women of the ELCA Biennial

The Southern Ohio Synod Women of the ELCA Biennial Convention will take place on Saturday, Sept. 28, at St. John Lutheran Church in Piqua. Registration, breakfast, and vendor displays start at 8:00 a.m., with the Gathering beginning at 8:45 a.m. The Bible study for the biennial, led by Pastor Rebecca Grate, will be from Ephesians 3:16-19. There will be workshops and built-in times for rest and reflection.

The cost is $50, and lunch is included in the registration fee. Business items include electing new officers for the next two years and electing voting members for the 2026 Women of the ELCA Triennial Gathering in Des Moines, Iowa. A block of rooms will be available at the Comfort Inn on Friday night, if you are not a morning person. Pastor Laura will not be able to go because she will be in Tennessee at that time. If you are interested, let her know, and she will print off the information and registration form for you. If you are interested in being a voting member for the 2026 Triennial, she will print a nomination form for you and will be happy to nominate you. Registrations must be in by Monday, Sept. 9.

Pastor Laura's Vacation Sundays

Pastor Laura will be assisting with the 95th anniversary celebration of her home church, Faith Lutheran Church in Dayton, on Sunday, Sept. 8. Pastor Jenell Rue will be the supply pastor at Peace that Sunday, so we will celebrate Holy Communion. There is a possibility that her husband, Mike Rue, will preach. Pastor Laura will be gone only for that day and will be back in the evening for the Church Council meeting.

The Shrefflers will be on vacation Wednesday, September 25, through Monday, Sept. 30. They will travel to Tennessee to celebrate the first birthday of their granddaughter which will be Sept. 30. Pastor Laura will be back in the office on Tuesday, Oct. 1. Melinda Moran is tentatively scheduled to supply on Sunday, Sept. 29. We will not have Holy Communion.

Christmas Eve Luminaria

The Sunday School Board has decided that they will not be putting out luminaria for Christmas themselves. However, if there is anyone who would like to spearhead getting the luminaria together and putting them out, we always have some people who are willing to help. If you are interested, please see Nikki Tracy.

God's work. Our hands.

God's Work – Our Hands Sunday

We will celebrate God's Work-Our Hands Sunday on Sunday, Sept. 15. Most ELCA churches observe God's Work-Our Hands Sunday on the second Sunday in September, but we had some conflicts with the use of Frey Hall.

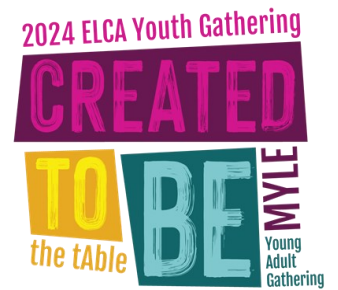

The Sunday School Board/Christian Education Committee has invited Wynand "Wayne" De Wet back to update us on our Bariadi Orphanage, Home of Peace, in Tanzania.

We will begin with a carry-in breakfast in Frey Hall at 8:30 a.m., and Wayne will give a presentation from 9:15 to 10:15. We will have one worship service at the usual traditional worship time of 10:30 a.m., where Wayne will also give a presentation. Wayne says he is more than happy to share about all that God is doing at Bariadi. Four churches have been planted in the area, and One Plus God is busy building the second church building.

We will take up a special offering for Bariadi, part of which will be given to Wayne to take back, and part of which will help with our sponsorship of two Bariadi students. Flora has graduated, so we are no longer sponsoring her. We continue to sponsor Meschak, who will graduate next year. We have taken on a new, younger, student, Daniel, whom we will begin to sponsor in October.

Please join us for good food, good information, and good community as we continue to do God's work with our hands.

Brown County Fair Parade

Brown County Fair Parade

The Evangelism Committee has decided that Peace will not have a booth at the Brown County Fair this year. A number of factors figures into this: we have had a difficult time recently finding enough people to sit at the booth and engage with the public; fair tickets have jumped in price; and it was a struggle for us to get our passes and find a decent place to park near our booth.

We still plan to be a presence at the Fair Parade on Monday, Sept. 23. We have a truck and a trailer, but we do need a driver! If you are interested or know someone who might be, please see Susan Taylor or Lisa or Jerry Jewell. Luther the Dog will be walking the parade route with the rest of us. Luther is always a hit with the kids! If you are riding or walking, please wear a Peace Lutheran T-Shirt or a Thrivent T-Shirt if you have one. Shirts are available in the Access Hallway.

Since we plan to ride/walk in the parade, we will need candy. We could use donations of all kinds of candy to give out on the route. You can place all candy donations in the black tote in the Access entrance.

Aging Better Expo

The Adams County Regional Medical Center will host an "Aging Better Expo," on Thursday Sept. 29. This will be a day of empowerment and enrichment tailored for those aged 55 and older. It will include informative sessions, health fair offerings, enriching activities and lunch while connecting with organizations dedicated to helping you age better.

The fair will begin at 9:00 a.m. with BMI measurements, vision screenings, Hoxworth Blood Center, vaccines, pain screenings, blood pressure, bone density, balance, blood sugar, grip tests and more. This will be followed by the Aging Better Expo Vendor Resource Fair, Legal and Estate Planning by Legal Aid, chair exercise, consumer protection by AAA7, BINGO, a catered lunch, "Fueling Your Body" by dietitian Megan Rowe, Medicare vs. Managed Medicare by OSHIIP, and wrap up with a magic show and raffle prizes.

The Expo will be in the Willow Event Center. Registration is open until Wednesday, Sept. 11, and can be completed online at acrmc.com/aging-better-expo. Pastor Laura also will have copies of the registration form and events on the Access Hall table.

Please send news items, corrections and address changes to the church office or peacelutheran@ymail.com

The Beacon is the official publication of Peace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Arnheim, Ohio. It is sponsored by the Church and the LYO to furnish information and inspiration to our congregation and friends.
