

SPEAK UP! Toolkit – Suggested Outcome Measures

Theatre On Purpose and the student creators of Project SPEAK UP! are passionate about building a movement for suicide prevention to save lives. If you present SPEAK UP! we want to learn about your experience. Please share with us your outcomes – qualitative and quantitative. We would like to share data and anecdotal evidence of how SPEAK UP! is advancing care for students in school or community settings. Please tell us about the changes that are coming about in your community as a result of SPEAK UP!

Name of school or community center: _____

Audiences at your presentation:

1. # Adult faculty and personnel
2. # of parents
3. # of students

Post-presentation Activity:

1. Did your school or agency train a response team with protocols after seeing SPEAK UP?
  - a. # of adult school responders trained
  - b. # of peer counselors trained for your site
  - c. # of students who sought counseling at your site after seeing SPEAK UP!
  - d. # of referrals to community health centers
2. Did you develop partnerships with local Mental Health resource centers? Yes / No
  - a. How many new collaborations did you form for care referrals?
3. Did you offer parent follow-up education workshops?
  - a. If so, how many parents participated?

Readiness to Respond:

1. How would you rate your school's readiness to respond when students speak up:
  - Good: trained staff and protocols mostly in place
  - Needs Improvement: more training, have gaps to fill in framework of care
  - Poor: We are not staffed or resourced to respond when students are in crisis

Comments & Testimonials:

1. Adult and Student responses to open-ended post-presentation surveys: If you feel that any responses you received would be valuable to use as testimonials for the Project, please share them.
2. If questions or reactions arose during your post-presentation talk-backs that you feel we should know about, please share.
  - a. Likewise, evaluation comments by your school personnel and counseling staff

Please send outcomes report to:

Amy Luskey-Barth, MPC; Executive Artistic Director, Theatre On Purpose
alb@theatreonpurpose.org

Thank you for sharing your experience and learnings from Project SPEAK UP!

We are continually refining our Tool Kit and Resource Guide – your outcomes and comments matter!