

Renee DeDenTestimonial

Helen and Kelly always have my best interests at heart. They take the time to listen and understand my work interests and my priorities, and in turn, assign me with companies that are in alignment with my needs. They take their staff's preferences seriously when matching skills and qualifications. They have worked time and again to connect me with clients that are close to my home, which is one of my biggest priorities.

My skill sets have grown tremendously with Harris & Dickey. Many of the accounting and audit projects I've worked on have evolved into other areas of the business. Kelly and Helen have always consulted me to ensure my comfort with these expanded roles and make sure that my pay rate reflected the increased responsibilities.

I've been with Harris & Dickey for the past five years, of which I've only been assigned to three clients. Please know, that was by choice because I prefer long term clients. It gives me a great opportunity to get to know the people that I work with, and really dig in to the assignment so I feel that my contribution adds value to the company.

If you're looking for a contract position or working for a contractor, Harris & Dickey...they're awesome.
