"Because Kirk has sold over 300 homes using digital marketing, he understands what is important to capture and what is not for every listing and why I can strongly recommend him for your marketing."

"Kirk was pleasant and professional to work with, and his expertise in the field of drone tours was greatly appreciated. Both the video drone tour and virtual 3D tour came out great and are attracting many views for my listing across multiple platforms. His eye for artistic expression truly can be seen in the finished products. Thank you, Kirk!"

"Direct Turn Media added a ton of value to my marketing and my clients were very impressed, but more importantly the feedback I got from the public has been fantastic. It's so much better than matterport or Zillow. I plan on using Direct Turn Media for all of my listings. Thank you, Kirk!"
