City News:

Planning Commission

The old St. Elizabeth nunnery will be converted into 14 apartments. The rezoned area behind Paizanos had the subdivision they requested approved. This is the area that had the house fire quite awhile ago.

Ambulance

Oregon Health Authority (OHA) will be in Baker City in late May to inspect the ambulance to hopefully issue a license to begin backup service to Pioneer. All of the contracts are signed and the city is just waiting on the license.

Rotary Club

The Rotary has been super active lately with lots of guest speakers, the Easter Egg hunt, plastic collection drive and now a ping pong table in Geiser-Pollman Park. This will be a concrete table. Rotary has partnered with the library to provide paddles and balls. Check out Rotary!

Roads

Pocahontas will be closed between Chico Street and the intersection with 10th Street on May 5th. This closure may last a long time as work is done on the intersection at 10th. There will be a detour in place. The project is an ODOT funded project.

Art

First Friday Art Walk is today! Get out! If you need a list of participants go to Hiking Baker FB page for a list.

Churchill School

Terry Robb Guitar will perform Saturday the 3rd. Doors open at 6 pm. Strade B Bar will have drinks and MC Taco Bus will have dinner. If you haven't been to this unique venue Saturday night is a great night to check it out! Maybe you went to school at Churchill or how many music venues have pullout cafeteria tables and basketball hoops?

Crossroads Carnegie Art Center

This newsletter mentions all the programs available at Crossroads frequently, but most classes are still under attended. They have a pay what you can program. Take a class for free and have some creative fun. Just visit their website.

Sports

New women's mountain bike group: Crank Queens.

Their first event will be the New to the Bike Intro Weekend in June. Confidence on the Bike – Learn fundamental skills so you stop second-guessing yourself and enjoy the ride! A Supportive Riding Crew – You'll never feel like you're "not good enough" to join a group ride again. Bike Knowledge & Maintenance Skills – Learn to take care of your bike so you can ride more and stress less.

The Baker City pilot program include over 10 hours of LIVE instruction on bike handling skills, bike maintenance, trail etiquette and more.

Baker City Intro Weekend Dates: June 13th-14th, 2025 with an optional bonus ride day on June 15th! Co-hosted by Churchill School.
