Baker County Safe Communities Coalition (BCSCC)

This Friday during First Friday Art Walk swing by Court Plaza for "Chalk It Up for Hope" from 5-8pm. BCSCC will have swag, suicide prevention resources and signs. This program adds to BCSCC's list of programs to help communities to create a safer, healthier and more positive Baker County. 9/8 is 988 day for suicide and crisis lifeline and 9/25 is their Candlelight Vigil at Geiser Pollman park from 7-8:30 pm.

The Extreme Tour by the Harvest Church of Baker City will also be on Friday, September 5th at 5 pm in the Geiser Pollman Park. This is an event for all people young and old to come and enjoy! The Extreme Tour band will be playing live music from all styles from Rock, Pop, Funk, Classics, you name it.

Homebody Yoga

The grand opening evening will begin with a ribbon cutting at 5:30 pm on September 5th, followed by a celebratory toast. From there, enjoy light refreshments, explore the space, and connect with community. This celebration is free and open to the public—whether you're a seasoned yogi, brand new to the practice, or just curious to see the space.

Good Fellas ribbon cutting 9/5/2025 at 12 pm. A new barbershop in town joins Straight Edge Tony's, as well as other hair cut places such as The last Resort Salon, A Diva Salon, Tanglez and Toez, Hair Haven, The Girls Next Door, and Angel Aura Esthetics.

Baker Heritage Museum talk Tuesday, September 9th- 6pm social hour, 7pm Larry Morrison talks about Baker County and the gold that brought the Big Band Era to town! How did the Drum and Bugle Corps begin? The museum offers free talks every month.

Crossroads Carnegie Art Center is holding monthly Paddle Items fundraisers. For the month of September you can make a donation to Hand-To-Heart Scholarship Fund.

Pub Talk at Barley Brown's Tasting Room

On September 9th at 5 pm, join a free and engaging evening with local panelists where they will discuss the unique cultural, historic, and ecological role of beavers, new state policies and management plans, and how people can better live with beavers. Attendees will have the opportunity to discuss their own experiences and hear about available resources in their area.

2nd Annual Walk for Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy

Walk and BBQ on September 6th at 10am. Walk will start and end at Geiser Pollman Park. You can also show support by replacing your porch light bulb with a green bulb to help light up Baker City with green porch lights in support of DMD Awareness Day on 9/7 & the month of September!
