PASSION

HISTORY

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Denise has been in the beauty industry for over 30yrs. She went to a beauty school in Virginia and went on to own and operate a Beauty Salon in the Norfolk area. She then went on to relocate to Virginia Beach, VA where she continued her love for the beauty industry.

In 2018, Denise relocated to Raleigh, NC where she landed a position with Paul Mitchell, The School where she advanced to become the school's Lead Color Specialist. In this role, she trained others to master their Color skills.

Denise gives credit to Jesus Christ, her Lord, for guidance and favor in her 30yrs in the industry. She has faithfully served the public in premium hair, skin, and nail care. She credits her authenticity, faith, passion, integrity, growth, and perseverance to Jesus, also.

Denise believes that He gave her the confidence to understanding her purpose and mission beyond any fears that she may have, and she takes pride in living in that truth everyday. Denise has committed herself to this industry and is sure to help her team of students perform at their very best. She is also committed to enhancing the beauty industry as a whole, and be an impactful source as it continues to grow.

Denise is currently licensed in Cosmetology in the states of Virginia and North Carolina, and owns a Trendy Nailz Institute located in Williamston, NC. She has earned recognition, awards, and honorable mentions amongst being nominated and winning the award for the BBU Award for Best Hair, Makeup, and Nails.

Denise is known as a Stylist, Makeup Artist, Nail Technician, and Master Educator.
