DREAMS: A BLESSING IN DISGUISE[©]—An Evening with Carla Blowey

Thurs June 18: 8:00 EDT, 6:00 CST, 5:00 MOUNTAIN 4:00 PST

Carla Blowey, in 1991 at the age of 33 entered the most painful and challenging time of her life when the death of her five-year-old son Kevin, and the nightmare that predicted it, forced her to re-examine her perceptions about death, grief and the afterlife. Dreaming Kevin became a valuable tool for reclaiming her life. Using her dream journal with much discernment and prayer, she uncovered the personal symbols, metaphors and archetypes that led to forgiveness, healing, spiritual growth, and new life.

Carla recognizes the power in sharing our dreams and grief experiences. Our conversation with Carla will help us to see beyond the illusions of death, bringing our dreams, our deceased loved ones and ultimately ourselves, into the Light. This evening's program is Part 1 of a 2-Part series adapted for our virtual community based on Dreams: A Blessing Disguise[©].

Carla is a Certified Dream Work Facilitator through the Marin Institute for Projective Dream Work. As an MIPD certified dream work facilitator, Carla believes that "all dreams come to us in service of health and wholeness and only the dreamer knows for certain what his/her dream means" (Jeremy Taylor). She will share an invitation for a shift in perspective, leaving the analysis and interpretation to the dreamer. Weaving the values of spirituality with personal loss and transition for psychological and spiritual growth, Carla invites the dream images to speak their truth, thus creating a space for grace to nourish...and Love to flourish.

Carla lives and dreams in beautiful southwestern Colorado. Kevin continues to be her spiritual coach, inspiring and guiding Carla on this incredible journey. For more information about her book, speaking, dream and bereavement workshops, active dream groups and editorial services, visit www.dreamingkevin.com.
