A REFLECTION ON TODAY'S GOSPEL FROM A DOMINICAN FRIAR:

As Jesus' disciples, we are to be a people who reflect his presence in our midst.

Since forgiveness is such a rare commodity among individuals, communities, religions, tribes, races and nations, a community that is characterized by forgiveness would certainly be a way of announcing Jesus Christ to the world. If forgiveness were the hallmark of our Christian community, we would be what Jesus hoped for us to be -- "a city built on a hilltop," a "light to the nations."

So, we ask ourselves:

What effect has forgiveness had on my own life?

What person or institution am I called to forgive?

Let me begin the forgiveness process by praying for the one(s) who have offended me.

From the Pastor's Desk...

In today's reading, the Lord Jesus calls us to be concerned about the material needs of people around us and to be concerned about the Holy life that everyone needs to exercise frequently, we need to help each other walk in the right path. We are a small Christian Catholic community here in Corinth and we are all here to make a difference in our life and the life of others. Let us keep helping those who are in need of food, justice, acceptance, dignity, support, shelter, and so on, the way Jesus taught us. Let us not die together as one heard and in my mind pray that we will not fall in temptation or walk in the darkness of sin. May our body not die spiritually because we did not correct or pray for them in time. Let us pray and correct each other with fraternity, and love. Because the Lord is in our midst: He said: "... For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them."
