A Reflection on Today's Gospel from a Dominican Friar

Our daily routine can be shattered by the unexpected and sudden demands life puts on us and our loved ones. Will we be ready to respond? It depends on how well we have tended to our "oil" supply.

So we ask ourselves:

- What helps me "stay awake" and alert to God's entrance into my daily life?
- Is there a practice of prayer, or reflection, I can adopt to help me better respond to Christ each day?

From the Pastor's Desk...

Dear community we are in the last weeks of this liturgical year. In this year of 2017, we have reflected about our faith in our Lord Jesus. Since He was announced in the Old Testament until these last weeks when the word of God invites us to reflect in the kingship of Jesus, He is the center of our whole history. Jesus is the wisdom of God and He is the one who brings us close to Him. Christ is the one who had come to meet us in our needs and sinful life and bring us back to God by his death and resurrection. It is Jesus who sends the Holy Spirit that we will be as the psalm said: "My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God." And it is the Lord Jesus who is the bridegroom of the Church and everyone is invited to be with Him to celebrate His wedding feast in heaven. Everyone is invited to know him, to love him, to serve him here on earth, and to enjoy in him in heaven. Remember the gospel said: Five of them were foolish and five were wise." Does he know you?
