

Hydrilla & Elk Lake

Hydrilla is an aquatic invasive plant that can out compete many native organisms and disrupt ecological systems within and around an infested body of water. It is notoriously difficult and expensive to manage and can quickly make boating, swimming and fishing nearly impossible if left untreated. Follow the link below with suggestions on cleaning your watercraft before launching.

Clean Your Gear \(fishandboat.com\)

