About the Creativity Shell

The Creativity Shell is a nonprofit organization dedicated to using creative arts such as sewing, cooking, visual arts, and STEAM to teach life skills, promote positive mental health, and inspire the next generation of makers. Our programs serve children in schools, shelters, libraries, and our own studios, giving them the tools to express themselves and build confidence through creativity.

Position Overview

We are seeking a talented and passionate Art Teacher to lead engaging, hands-on art classes for children and teens. The ideal candidate will be skilled in one or more artistic mediums such as drawing, painting, pottery, or abstract art, and will bring energy, patience, and creativity to every class.

Key Responsibilities

- Teach art classes in your area of expertise, including drawing, painting, pottery, abstract art, and more.
- Develop lesson plans that are age-appropriate, engaging, and encourage creative expression.
- Adapt instruction to meet the needs of students with varying skill levels.
- Foster a positive, inclusive, and inspiring learning environment.
- Maintain a clean and organized classroom space.
- Communicate effectively with students, parents, and staff.

Qualifications

- Skilled in one or more art mediums with the ability to teach technique and creative process.
- Passion for working with children and encouraging artistic expression.
- Patience, creativity, and adaptability.
- Reliable and punctual with the ability to work scheduled hours.
- Previous teaching or youth program experience is preferred but not required.

Compensation

- Hourly pay commensurate with experience.
- Supportive and creative work environment.
