

Position Title: Crochet Teacher

Organization: The Creativity Shell

Location: Kingwood, TX (On-site)

Schedule: Mondays 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM and Thursdays 3:30 PM – 7:00 PM

About the Creativity Shell

The Creativity Shell is a nonprofit organization dedicated to using creative arts such as sewing, crochet, cooking, art, and STEAM to teach life skills, promote positive mental health, and inspire the next generation of makers. Our programs serve children in schools, shelters, libraries, and our own studios, helping them gain skills, confidence, and creativity.

Position Overview

We are looking for a passionate and patient Crochet Teacher to join our teaching team. This role is perfect for someone who loves fiber arts, enjoys working with kids, and can create a supportive and engaging learning environment. Whether it's teaching the basics of crochet or helping students develop more advanced techniques, this teacher will inspire creativity and encourage students to take pride in their handmade projects.

Key Responsibilities

- Teach beginner to intermediate crochet classes for students ages 6 –17.
- Demonstrate proper crochet techniques, patterns, and stitches.
- Adapt lessons to different skill levels and learning styles.
- Foster a welcoming, patient, and encouraging classroom environment.
- Prepare materials and keep the classroom organized and safe.
- Communicate with students, parents, and staff as needed to ensure a positive learning experience.

Qualifications

- Passion for crochet and fiber arts.
- Patience, kindness, and the ability to work with children of all ages and backgrounds.
- Ability to teach basic to intermediate crochet techniques.
- Reliable and punctual, with the ability to work scheduled hours (Mon 5–7 PM, Thurs 3:30–7 PM).
- Previous teaching or mentoring experience is a plus but not required.

Compensation

- Hourly pay commensurate with experience.
- Creative and supportive work environment.
