Staff: Sue Colbrese; Zara Iwen

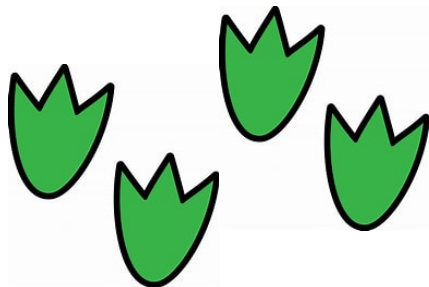

The mission is to use archives, artifacts, photos, and a library to tell the story of Glendive and Eastern MT and the general area in a way that is accurate and faithful to the many faceted history of the region including the lives of the men and women who explored and settled this area.

Board of Directions: Eileen Melby: President; Keith Robinson: First VP; Rosanne Bos: Second VP; Patty Atwell: Treasurer; Verna Carpenter: Secretary; Greg Hagenston, Sheryl Stansbury, Noreen Turnquist, Jesse Schaff, and Kathy McLane.

Meet The Curator:

We wish to thank all of the volunteers who make it possible to keep our grounds and buildings in good shape, aid in keeping our interior attractive, organize photos and files for the archives and help us provide a positive experience for our visitors.

ATTENTION RESEARCHERS:

Check out the new archives room where museum staff can help those who are interested in researching the area's history.

Talking Trails is a new adventure at the museum and throughout our community. Rather than reading a line or two found on a sign, experience the whole story with the Talking Trails mobile app or dial-in platform. Talking Trails provides an audio or video recording. Follow the 20 plus talking trails to discover the history of our community.

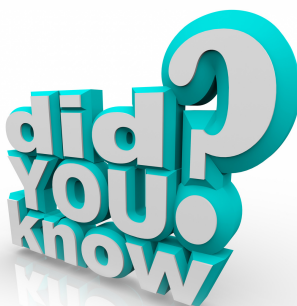

Wall of Heroes

In an effort to honor our military men and women past and present and our first responders we have a new display in the Carter Room on the main floor of the museum.

Other new additions to the museum include a beauty shop/barber shop display, Rudolph Zallinger murals, new items in our gift shop, and a new office area. Invite a friend and visit the museum.

1. The name "Frontier Gateway Museum" was selected in March, 1957.
2. The first shovelful of dirt was turned by Gov. Babcock on Sept. 15, 1962.
