

MAYA

Maya, are you as lovely as they said you'd be
Give me a sign or something I can read
I don't understand her more than I can see
And Maya, she's everything I didn't know
Oh Maya, give me one more chance to show you how
I can change the way I think about
The world around me and what is special in my life

Maya asks me what is special anyway
Maya seems to know the things that no one else can say
Maya puts her finger to her lips as she whispers to me love
Maya can do anything she says she puts her mind to and no more than that
She said

Maya, am I as lovely as you thought I'd be
Have I changed the way you think of me
Thinking instead of feeling is what is going on – Maya said
Could anything be easier than simply letting go
Everything we think we need is only there to show you
Just when I'm about to say

Maya puts her finger to her lips as she whispers to me love
Maya can do anything she says she puts her mind to and no more than that
It only takes just a little

Faith and belief in what you are
She said

She said she said she said

She said she said she said

She said she said she said

She said she said she said
