

Stuck In The Middle

I know she ain't happy
I know she ain't sad
And I know life ain't always pretty
She don't know why she left the home she had

It can be so hard to make a new start
You tell yourself it's gonna be all right
Six months on ain't no one called
You didn't think it's gonna be so hard

And I know life can be mean
We give more up with every opportunity
She said my dreams go right and no one's left but me
I'm stuck in the middle

Searching for a sign she can hold onto
Like a dark night in a city of lights
Another six months on, ain't no one called
And now she's feeling more alone

And I know life can be mean
We give more up for every opportunity
She said my dreams go right and no one's left but me
I'm stuck in the middle
I'm stuck in the middle
I'm stuck in the middle
I'm stuck in the middle
