

SUMMER IS OVER

I just got back into town today
And I feel I am on the line
It's been a long, long summer babe
My soul feels compromised – and I'll tell you
Day after day the things that I say
And the people I meet start to turn
And the pain that I can't shake
In these bones how they ache
On the body be broken and hurt

But I'm on my way to you
Only my mind surely knew
I've got more time to do
When summer is over, I'll be home to you

I feel like a stranger
Finding my way through the dark
And the hardest thing I've ever had to do was Leaving your bed more and more – and I'll tell you
Day after day, what I'm doing I can't fake
And the cords that I make start to burn
It all takes its toll
The mind can be a deep black hole
Leading me into the dark

But I'm on my way to you
Only my mind surely knew
I've got more time to do
When summer is over, I'll be home to you

But I'm on my way to you
Only my mind surely knew
I've got more time to do
When summer is over, I'll be home to you
