WHERE TIME SLOWS, WONDER BEGINS

Hidden within Tasmania's wild coastline, The Saffire Jewel Private Villa presents a rare sanctuary where the grandeur of nature meets the intimacy of home. Born of the ancient pink granite of The Hazards, framed by native bushland and overlooking the endless sweep of Great Oyster Bay, this villa is designed for those who seek not just luxury, but meaning.

THE GUEST EXPERIENCE

Your journey begins in stillness – water rippling at the reflection pond, the hush of bushland all around. The villa reveals itself in layers – sunlight through glass, stone underfoot, art curated along the gallery corridor. Days unfold effortlessly – coffee at sunrise, long lunches curated for you, laughter echoing from the infinity pool, evenings by the fire beneath the southern stars.

At the Saffire Jewel, every detail is conceived to dissolve distraction and immerse you wholly in people, place and presence. This is luxury that lingers, a rare clarity that endures long after you depart.
