

The lines of the logo represent the furrows of the kitchen garden, the rows of a vineyard, the rugged terrain and unique golden sunlight of the Grampians

ROYAL MAIL HOTEL

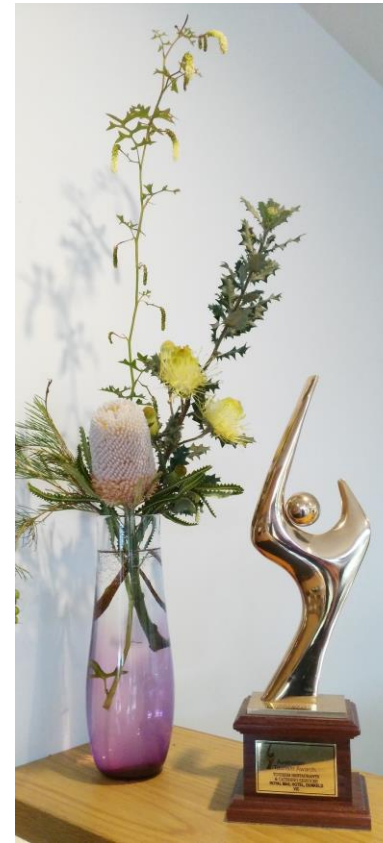

DUNKELD AUSTRALIA

The heritage of the Royal Mail Hotel is expressed in the branding by a gothic lettering typeface replicated from a postage stamp dating back to the 1800's

The Royal Mail Hotel first opened in 1855. The establishment remained the quintessential Australian country pub, where locals gathered and the Cobb & Co coaches dropped off the mail after its journey from England to the colonial outpost

Award-winning Restaurant

Executive Chef - Robin Wickens

Award-winning pioneer of molecular gastronomy in Australia who earned two chef hats from the Good Food Guide for three consecutive years and Australian Gourmet Traveller Young Chef of the Year

Wickens

“If there was a list of dining rooms with the best views in the current Good Food Guide, this place would muscle instantly into the top 10”

- Ardyn Bernoth, Good Food Guide Editor

The largest working restaurant kitchen garden in Australia, which provides up to 80% of the organic produce used for daily meals and all outlets of the hotel

2019 Good Food Guide Awards

2 Hats – Regional, Victoria
Regional Wine List of the Year

2018 Australian Tourism Awards

Gold – Tourism Restaurants

Royal Mail Hotel proudly won gold at the QANTAS Australian Tourism Awards, recognising excellence in our food and wine tourism experience. The awards acknowledge outstanding customer service, marketing innovation and ongoing business excellence at a national level.

2016 & 2017 Victorian Tourism Awards

Gold – Deluxe Accommodation and Tourism Restaurants

2015 – ‘Fine Wine’ magazine (UK)

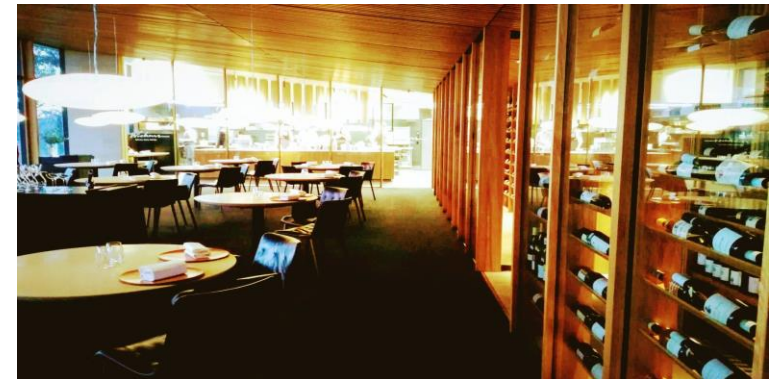

Best Hotel Wine List worldwide

2015 – ‘Fine Wine’ magazine (UK)

Best Dessert and Fortified Wine List, Australiasia

2014, 2015 & 2016 – Wine Spectator (USA) Restaurant Wine List Awards

‘Grand Award’

R · E · E
Ros Elite Experience

R · E · E
Ros Elite Experience