

"This is Tasmania showcasing the best of what it does, from this untamed wilderness to great wines, from leading-edge marine technology to nightly feasts of lobster."
John Borthwick, The Weekend Australian

On Board

Explore the most remote corners of Tasmania's World Heritage-listed wilderness on an intimate, exclusive expedition cruise. On Board's purpose-built boutique vessel, Odalisque III, was built and launched in Tasmania in 2023. Adventures on the new expedition catamaran feature exclusive access to wilderness areas, with daily walks and adventure boat excursions with expert local guides via bespoke itineraries.

On Board's signature five-day experience on Odalisque III is in Port Davey, a vast, fragile and spectacular harbour in Southwest Tasmania, inaccessible by road. A protected marine reserve, national park and UNESCO Tasmanian Wilderness World Heritage Area, brushed by the westerly winds of the Roaring Forties, it is one of the world's last places of raw, untamed beauty.

The Tasmanian-owned family-operated experience begins and ends in Hobart with a 40-minute scenic seaplane transfer to Odalisque III, the floating lodge in the wilderness. The flight sets the scene for an epic adventure to come with bird's-eye views over wild green valleys and wave-battered coastlines.

Once in the Southwest National Park, guests spend their days adventuring across the calm, reflective waters of Bathurst Harbour and its surrounding ancient rainforests, buttongrass plains, and quartzite mountain peaks. Beyond Port Davey's entrance, explore the untracked sands of wild Southern Ocean beaches and the islands that protect the harbour, the last land contact between Tasmania and Antarctica. Along the way, spy rare and endangered wildlife, and learn of Tasmania's Aboriginal people at a significant cultural living site.

Back on board, the reward for the day's adventure includes a feast of Tasmania's finest seafood, wines, and whiskies under a thousand stars. Lodgings feature all the soft luxuries, with expansive, ever-changing views of untouched waterways, peaks and forests through large windows.

Insider tips

- Pause to feel the tranquillity of true wilderness. Port Davey is a natural outpost on the outer rim of Australia. Next stop Antarctica. There are no roads, no towns, no phone reception, and most of the time, no humans.
- Spy critically endangered orange-bellied parrots during the breeding season from December to March. Fewer than 100 adult birds remain in the wild.
- Take an exhilarating ride on the vessel's tender through the Breaksea Islands' kelp-lined sea caves with On Board skipper and founder, Tasmanian mariner Pieter van der Woude.
