A special thanks goes to the South Seneca Falcon Music Boosters for providing meals for students, teachers, and guest conductors, and for all of their technical behind the scenes support leading up to and during the festival. Thank you to the South Seneca Custodial Staff and Food Service for their support during the Festival. Thank you to the South Seneca Administration for your help and support during planning and execution. Thank you David Parks for sound recording, Nathaniel Bauder for working our sound and light boards, Carrie Smalser for photographing the festival, and to all of the volunteers and students who have lent their time helping with the festival this weekend and the hours leading up to it. Thank You!

Local and surrounding businesses that helped to bring the 2016 Fall Music Festival together with their generous donations are: Thirsty Owl, Lively Run Dairy, Waid's Honey, Lucas Winery, and Pine Tree Farms. A big thank you to Italian Kitchen and New Dragon Restaurants for helping us feed directors and guest conductors.
