PART 3 – Student and Homeschooling Information

The state of Maryland says that the parent is the "first and best" teacher, which means that you, the parent, needs to be the instructor at home. If you are not able to work with your child, with whom will your child be working on Mon/Wed/Fri? _____

Homeschooling does allow some flexibility, however being part of a homeschool tutorial necessitates a commitment to attending classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Is your family able to commit to regular, timely attendance at BETH-M/BridgeX? _____ Yes _____ No

Explain, if needed:

Our tutors work hard to cover as much material as possible in each class session. Students who are absent due to family travel, medical appointments or homeschool reviews that could have been scheduled on Mondays, Wednesdays or Fridays will not be able to fully participate in the complete BETH-M/BridgeX experience and may see their grades suffer if they miss instruction, presentation days or other classroom activities as determined by each tutor. Students who miss too many classes in a quarter can expect to be graded accordingly in those classes for which class participation is a large component. Please plan your family vacations around the BETH-M/BridgeX academic calendar. Do not expect tutors to grade work or projects that are beyond two weeks late. Moreover, tutors will not grade work or projects submitted after the close of a quarter.

Are you willing to commit to the entire BETH-M/BridgeX academic calendar, except in cases of family emergencies? _____ Yes _____ No

Explain, if needed:

Are you willing to obtain/borrow the course materials and class supplies each tutor requires, and are you willing and able to have these resources available for your student when needed and in the required format? _____ Yes _____ No

Explain, if needed:

If true hardship arises (economic, academic or otherwise), are you prepared to notify your child(ren)'s tutors immediately so that the tutors can assist you as you work to fulfill your responsibility to educate your child(ren)? _____ Yes _____ No

Explain, if needed:

NOTE: We need your support in answering the following questions as candidly as possible. Bridge Elementary/BridgeX is not equipped to handle children with serious learning disorders or behavioral issues. We provide only group tutoring and a safe environment for children to learn. (If more than one child is applying, please note which child is being referred to when answering.)

Does your child have any condition (learning disorders) that may affect his/her academic achievement or class involvement and would require regular or special attention? If so, please specify:

Does your child have any behavioral issues that may affect his/her class involvement and would require regular or special attention?

Has your child ever been suspended by a previous academic setting? If so, please specify.

Please describe any physical disabilities (hearing, speech, asthma, etc.) and/or any serious illnesses, diseases, or injuries that we need to be aware of.

PART 4 – Spiritual Information

Church Name: _____

2020-2021 Educational Responsibility and Commitment Agreement
(one form per family – initial and sign)

_____ I affirm that Bridge Elementary and Bridge Extension Tutorial Homeschool Ministries (BETH-M/BridgeX) is a Christian homeschool tutorial designed to assist me in my homeschooling endeavors. BETH-M/BridgeX is NOT an umbrella and does not provide oversight for my homeschooling. BETH-M is not to be used as a Tuesday/Thursday drop-off babysitting service.

_____ I understand that to maintain compliance with COMAR 13A.10.01 (Maryland's Homeschool Code), class days at BETH-M/BridgeX are not the only educational/schooling time my child receives. I am responsible to ensure that the work assigned by the tutor to be done on non-class days is completed to the best of my child's ability in a timely fashion. As such, I, or another adult, will work with my child on non-tutorial days. I recognize that I have the freedom to have my child complete work in a way I feel is best for my child's academic needs, but for the sake of continuity between tutorial and home, any changes I decide to make will be clearly communicated to my child's tutor.

_____ I understand that as my child's primary educator and in order for my family to reap the full benefits of participating in BETH-M/BridgeX, it is my responsibility, and in my child's best interest, to ensure he or she comes to class each day with all required resources, school supplies and supplemental materials. To this end, I commit to obtaining all required curriculum, resources and supplies necessary for my child to actively participate in class prior to the start of classes.

_____ I understand that it is not BETH-M/BridgeX's responsibility to verify that the work is completed. I answer first to the Lord, and second to my county in the state of Maryland (or local jurisdiction), regarding the completion of regular and thorough instruction for my child pursuant to applicable state/jurisdiction laws. However, I also recognize that grades provided by tutors are a reflection of the work completed and submitted to the tutor in a timely manner. I further understand that tutors are under no obligation to accept or grade late work, and work submitted after the close of a quarter will not be graded by the tutor.

_____ I understand that while homeschooling allows for flexibility, being part of a homeschool tutorial necessitates a commitment to regularly attending classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays. I further understand that students who are absent due to vacationing, routine medical appointments or homeschool reviews that could have been scheduled on non-tutorial days may miss out on the complete BETH-M/BridgeX experience and may see their grades suffer due to missing instruction, presentation days or other classroom activities as determined by each tutor. As such, I commit to considering the BETH-M/BridgeX academic calendar, except in the case of family emergencies, and the need for my student's full participation.

_____ If for any reason BETH-M/BridgeX learns that I am using the services provided in ways other than intended, I agree that BETH-M/BridgeX reserves the right to evaluate my continued participation in the tutorial. BETH-M/BridgeX will use quarterly reports, homework, and test scores, as well as tutor and parent feedback as resources for this decision. I understand it is BETH-M/BridgeX's desire to support my homeschooling efforts, not replace them, as I ensure classroom and academic success for my child. Should there be any concern regarding my child's progress, a meeting and/or test may be requested by the tutor, parent, and/or Leadership Team member to make sure my child is in the best educational environment for his/her needs. If my child receives a failing grade for two quarters, BETH-M/BridgeX has the right to withdraw them from that class.

_____ Finally, BETH-M/BridgeX is a cooperative tutorial, with all members working together to make the workload as light as possible for each of us individually. I understand that if I am not fulfilling my responsibilities as an active, participating family, this may impact my return the following year.
