

The Catholic Church goes back 1500 years before the protestant reformation.

To go to Mass is to walk in obedience to God's Word and communion with the Church.

The Crucifix in the Chapel appears as if Jesus is there. It reminds us of his sufferings. A Fixed sacred object given to us for meditation.

The Tabernacle in the Chapel appears as if Jesus is not there. But, he is. He is present in the Eucharist sanctified in the Tabernacle.

The philosophy of our Communion: Apostolic Communion Old Roman Catholic Rite.

Page 2 of 2

