We appreciate you taking time to read this letter and consider supporting the Saginaw Sugar Beets Youth Baseball organization.

The organization is designed to promote a positive environment for young players to improve their baseball skills while also focusing on personal responsibility, self-confidence and sportsmanship. The youth teams are part of a larger group that includes our collegiate summer league team. There are currently over 225 families in the organization.

Your contribution will benefit young players as they hone their skills, make lifelong friendships and strive to play at the next level.

We thank you for your help in promoting the sport of baseball in our area.
