Additional highlights of the discussion included the approval from Mr. Schwartz on all the Actions Plans provided for under the HUD Agreement; the continuous discussions around the Organizational Plan; status of vaccination sites throughout NYCHA housing from Senior Advisor of Housing and Economic Development, Jodi Callender; and an announcement from NYCHA Executive Vice President for Strategy and Innovation, Eva Trimble, about the soft launch of a new e-portal system to streamline NYCHA's annual review and recertification process – an idea that was initially introduced at a CAC meeting by Ms. Nancy Ortiz.

Please continue to visit the nychamonitor.com website for information on upcoming meetings. This includes a virtual educational meeting to discuss the Elevator Action Plan on March 10, 2021 and the Brooklyn virtual community meeting, open to all residents and community members, on March 16, 2021.
