

CELEBRATING THE GIFT OF YOU

I am so thankful for your unconditional love and belief in me, I am a lucky woman to have had such a present loving and encouraging Girl Dad.

I grow strong in the shade of your tree and stand tall because of the roots you've nourished.

PERSONALIZED JUST FOR YOU.

These reflections celebrate Dads who are doing it right.

This book is about honoring and validating what it means for young women to have a truly present Girl Dad.

It's a gift that reveals how Girl Dad experiences provide men with rich and lasting legacies they can be deeply proud of.

Learn how these inspiring Dads from across the globe are giving their girls what they want and need in order to thrive; in order to stand tall with greater self-assurance, greater self-esteem and greater self-respect; in order to make better choices about who they partner with; in order to meet the life challenges and opportunities they'll experience.
