

Police Officer Moira Ann Reddy-Smith

BIO

- Age 38
- Tour 13 years
- Badge 10467

INCIDENT DETAILS

- Cause Terrorist attack
- Weapon Aircraft; Passenger jet
- Offender 19 suicide attackers

Officer Moira Reddy-Smith was killed in the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks while attempting to rescue the victims trapped in the World Trade Center. Officer Reddy-Smith was the first officer to report the terrorist attack when she witnessed the first plane strike the first tower.

Officer Reddy-Smith's remains were located in March 2002.

Officer Reddy-Smith had served with the New York City Police Department for 13 years and was assigned to the 13th Precinct. She is survived by her husband, also a New York City Police Officer, and her two-year-old daughter.

Officer Reddy-Smith was posthumously awarded the New York City Police Department's Medal of Honor for her heroic actions.