

JAMES DENNIS MCNAUGHTON (TRANSIT DIST-2)

BIO

- Age 27
- Tour 10 years
- Badge Not available
- Military Veteran

INCIDENT DETAILS

- Cause Gunfire
- Location Overseas
- Weapon Rifle
- Offender Enemy Combatant

Staff Sergeant James McNaughton was shot and killed while assigned to military police duties at Camp Victory in Baghdad, Iraq.

He was climbing a guard tower to assist with the training of an Iraqi police officer when he was shot by a sniper.

Sergeant McNaughton had served in the U.S. Army Reserves for 10 years and also served as a police officer for the New York City Police Department. He was survived by his parents.