

Divine Spirits and Guides, we gather here today in the sacred space of Tarot. With reverence and gratitude, we call upon your presence and wisdom. We ask for your loving guidance as we embark on this journey of insight and clarity.

May our intentions be pure, and our hearts open to receiving messages of truth and healing. We invite the positive energies of the Universe to flow through us, illuminating the path before us.

We humbly request the presence of our guides and the guides of our sitters to join us in this sacred exchange. May their wisdom, love, and guidance infuse this reading, bringing forth messages that serve the highest good of all involved.

In this sacred space, let only pure, positive energy be present. May negativity, doubts, and fears be released, creating a safe and supportive environment for deep exploration and understanding.

With gratitude and trust, we open ourselves to the intuitive connection between the cards and our inner knowing. We surrender to the flow of divine guidance, trusting that the messages received will be delivered with love, compassion, and clarity.

We give thanks for the opportunity to be of service and to offer guidance through the sacred tool of Tarot. May our readings bring insight, healing, and empowerment to those who seek our guidance.

With reverence and gratitude, we honor the divine energies present and set the intention for a profound and transformative Tarot reading.

So it is.

Amen.
