

BU4U LLC

In-Home Personal Care Services & Life Coaching

BU4U looks to fill the gap in our community by focusing on how to avoid placing adults in residential services. We strive to work together with clients and family members to overcome common barriers that emerge beyond other programming. BU4U will assist each individual be the author of their own life story, after all the loudest voice people will ever hear is their own. We will utilize community resources and life coaching to provide additional support systems. BU4U will focus on an in-home setting maximizing out of home and into the community resources to result in maximum independence and community integration while still residing in-home with family, yet living as independently as possible a reality.

“I didn’t need you to fix me, I needed you to love me while I fix myself.”
