The History of the Bethlehem Central High School Womens' Lacrosse Program

The Bethlehem Central High School Girls' Lacrosse Program is marking its 25th anniversary in 2017. The program started in 1992 as a self-funded JV team that was funded, in part, with a grant from the Women's Sports Foundation. The program has accomplished a great deal in the quarter century of its existence. There were 57 girls on its inaugural squad and they had two wins and four losses that year under head coach Nancy McKenna. In 1993, 68 girls from grades 8 to 12 fielded Bethlehem's JV and Varsity teams

In its first 25 seasons, the Bethlehem Central High School Girls' Varsity team has won eight Section II titles, six Regional Championships and was State Class A Semi-Finalist in 2003 and 2005. The program has developed many exceptional players, a number of whom have gone on to play in college. The most decorated alumnus is Katie Rowan, a two-time U.S. National Team member who attended Syracuse University. Rowan was a three-time First Team All-American who led the Nation in scoring with 142 points in 2008. Katie is currently an assistant lacrosse coach at Syracuse. The list of some of the other top lacrosse players who have graduated from Bethlehem Central High School and went on to play at the Division I level in college include: Meg Stevens (1997), BCHS Head Coach Lily Corrigan (1999), Lindsay Piechnik (2000), Suzie Breaznell (2001), Tess McGrath (2005), Sara Fudin (2005), Halley Quillinan (2006), Emily Szelest (2006), Tee Ladouceur (2007), Allie Phelan (2010), Michele Primomo (2010), Kaitlyn Ayers (2011), Tori McGrath (2012), Emily Conway (2014), and Mary Kate McDonough (2014), Kaylee Rickert (2015), Emma Cremo (2016), Natalie Cook (2017), Sophie Powers (2017), and Kathryn Sancilio (2017).

Over the past few years, the Bethlehem Central High School girls' lacrosse team has faced stiff competition from other Suburban Council teams such as Guilderland, Shaker, and Niskayuna. The BCHS Girls' Lacrosse program continues to benefit from the efforts of the Bethlehem Lacrosse Club, which has been training a new cadre of athletic girls committed to lacrosse. With many of these players now eligible for scholastic teams, the future of Bethlehem Central High School lacrosse looks bright.
