

SUPERINTENDENT

Rockaway Borough, Morris County, NJ

The Rockaway Borough School District is seeking an innovative educational leader committed to “achieving excellence one student at a time.” As a PreK-8 district with a $12 million budget, we are a close-knit community that proudly serves just over 550 students in 2 schools - Lincoln Elementary and Thomas Jefferson Middle School. Our high school students attend the Morris Hills Regional District.

Our new superintendent will possess leadership experience in digital learning, the well-being of students/staff, the management of referendum projects, and effective internal/external communication. The individual should be compassionate, collaborative, and committed to our district and community.
