Dear Westchester Zontians,
Spring Greetings to all!

Since our last meeting we have continued to collect clothes for women and children in need of these items. We have two new bags of clothes ready to be delivered.

Several members of our club distributed fliers in and around the Bronxville Area for our next fundraiser on May 13, 2019 at Angelina's Restaurant, 22 Lake Avenue in Tuckahoe. Please plan to arrive by 5:45pm for the Dinner and Opera Experience featuring Madama Butterfly by Puccini. We have approximately 30 reservations. If we get 40 we can clear $1000.00!! If you cannot attend, please consider making a donation to this event.

Any member who has not paid their dues please do so as soon as possible.

On May 11, 2019 there will be a district meeting in NYC, all are welcome. More information on this event will follow.

On May 13, 2019 we will hold a board meeting on Finance and Service, the time and place to be determined.

We will have our June retreat on June 22, 2019 at 3 Wartburg in Mt Vernon. We are pleased that we will induct new members at this meeting. Let me know if you can help with food or set-ups. The time of this event will be confirmed at our next meeting.

Our Young Woman in Public Service Award was presented at our last meeting to Ms. Elyse Sherr who is currently a senior at John Jay High School. Among the many highlights of her resume are: being involved with the Model U. N.; being a member of her campus congress for four years; working for Senator Shelly Mayer; and undertaking an internship for Assembly Buchwald next year. We are very proud of her and grateful to Nora and Sheila for reading all of the wonderful applications and making this fine selection.

Please notify Nora Gorman if you are bringing a guest or unable to attend our May meeting.
Sincerely,

Laura Dunckley, President

Nathalie is the director of Human Trafficking at My Sister's Place. She provided an informative presentation about the role of My Sister's Place in attending to victims of abuse and trafficking in Westchester County. She asked that all of us be mindful of any situation that does not appear to be in the norm within our communities.
