Handling Agreement

We will use every effort to care for, prepare and present your dog (or dogs) in the ring to it's best advantage. Proper methods of sanitation and cleanliness will be observed. Daily exercise and diet will be provided. We do not accept responsibility for injury, escape, theft, illness, death, or loss from any cause. We reserve the right to determine if the services of a licensed veterinarian are required. All veterinary fees will be the responsibility of the owner.

Dogs will be shown by us personally whenever possible. In the event of a show time conflict we will do our utmost to obtain a qualified individual to replace us in the ring in presenting your dog. No other Handler may be hired by the owner unless agreed by both parts.

All cash prizes will be kept by the handler. All other trophies and ribbons are the property of the owner. Trophies may be picked up or will be periodically shipped.

Owner accepts responsibility for confirming all points as recorded by the AKC. Owner further agrees not to hold the handler responsible for any discrepancy between handlers, owners, and AKC regarding such matters.

All charges incurred for care, handling, boarding, transportation, etc. will be presented monthly, unless arranged otherwise. A deposit of $ 1000 for class dog and $ 3000 for a Special* is required. Payment is due upon receipt. Bills not paid within 30 days, unless otherwise previously arranged, will be assessed a 1 ½ % monthly interest rate (18% apr). No dog will be released until bill is paid in full. Deposits will be credited to final bill. Entries are done by a third party service, handler is not responsible for fees. *Special deposits may apply to owners who reside outside the continental USA
