Church Happenings.

Pastor Nathan's Weekly Message

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.      (Matthew 17:1-3)

The transfiguration story recalls and confirms Peter's confession (16:16). The story also recalls the baptism of Jesus, and the voice from heaven designating him as both the Son of God and the Suffering Servant. This commission is reconfirmed as Jesus begins to instruct his disciples on the meaning and cost of discipleship. The one who is to be crucified is also the divine and glorious one, and vice versa.

In this course, Dr. Nijay Gupta delves into the often-overlooked stories of women leaders in the early church. As you explore the historical context of women's roles in Scripture and its ancient context, you'll gain fresh perspectives on familiar biblical texts, discover the significant contributions of women like Deborah, Phoebe, Prisca, and Junia, and engage with important discussions about the roles of women in leadership. The course also addresses challenging passages that seem to limit women's participation in leadership, offering a fresh perspective on these texts. Whether you're a student, scholar, or simply someone curious about the Bible, this course will deepen your knowledge and appreciation of the diverse individuals who shaped early Christianity.

A SHARED JOURNEY IN FAITH AND FELLOWSHIP

A Shared Journey in Faith and Fellowship

At South Parish Congregational Church, UCC, we are grateful for the opportunity to share our space—and our ministry—with Green Street United Methodist Church. When the Green Street congregation faced the difficult decision to close their church building due to financial challenges, our church was honored to offer the use of our chapel and church facilities.

What began as an act of hospitality has become a meaningful and life-giving partnership. It has truly been a joy to welcome the Green Street congregation into our church home. Sharing space has allowed us to build relationships, learn from one another, and experience the beauty of two different faith communities working side by side.

Though our traditions may differ, our shared commitment to Christ, compassion, and service has brought us together in powerful ways. Seeing our building filled with worship, fellowship, and community throughout the week has been a blessing to all.

This partnership reflects who we strive to be as a church—open-hearted, supportive, and responsive to the needs of others. We give thanks for the Green Street United Methodist Church and for the ways this shared ministry has strengthened both congregations.

We look forward with gratitude to continuing this journey together, trusting that God is at work among us.

2. Mark your calendars for March 8th, find your sunglasses and Hawaiian shirts, and come join in the fun in the sun after Church on March 8th, BEACH DAY!

Because of generous grants, the Augusta Emergency Overnight Warming Center can open each season and provide warmth, safety, and dignity to our guests. We are very thankful for this support.

We have also been blessed with many donations of food, clothing, and other supplies. These gifts are incredibly helpful and deeply appreciated.

However, many important daily needs cannot be met without monetary donations. Financial support allows us to provide transportation, help guests care for their pets, and cover planning and administrative costs that keep the center running year after year.

Grants help us open our doors—but monetary donations help us meet people where they are and support their next steps forward.

If you are able, please consider making a monetary donation. Every gift, no matter the size, helps us care for our neighbors when they need it most.

Thank you for standing with us and helping keep compassion in action. ❤️

Greeter report February 7, 2026

Nelson Leavitt

So many good things happened today!

Lexi took her first turn at providing goodies for fellowship time. Donna has been providing most of it for a long time with others stepping up from time to time, and we thank them too. Lexi told me that she at one time had a catering service. Her expertise was obvious in the preparation and food she presented. Thank you, Lexi!

Again today, there was one person attending for the first time that I met, and I believe another two that I didn't meet. They came with members who cared for them and made sure they felt welcome. So perhaps there were three?

One man that I talked with had come from the Warming Center. He came looking for a way to break clear of his addiction. We talked about how that could be done with the help of Jesus and the Holy Spirit. He told a story of loss of everything after he had acquired many assets and a family. He will remain nameless for now, but God knows him and he needs our prayers.

Beth Sirabella joined the conversation and gave inspiration and ideas for help. From her I learned about Angel, which offers consulting help to those in need. It is located on Spruce St, on the east side. Also, Beth told about attending Al-Anon, which now holds meetings on Wednesdays at our church. She told me about how valuable it is to talk with others who have been down the same road as she has. There are many of us that can relate to that! Thank you, Beth!

Best of all, I watched our son Christopher talk with one of the newest. He told me they share a past of addiction. To know these connections, happen during our fellowship time is an inspiration to all of us. Thank you, Christopher!
