

Tribal Regalia at Graduation Ceremonies

Cultural attire is valued, encouraged, and permitted at both the Robing Ceremony and Graduation as a meaningful representation of students' heritage and identity. Students may incorporate traditional clothing or accessories that honor their cultural background while ensuring that standard regalia remains visible. PCA recognizes the importance of cultural expression and seeks to create an inclusive and celebratory environment for all graduates.