

WANTED

We are looking for First Responders and/or Military Personnel (and family members) to participate in a trial for a new program called Plein Air MD Ltd. The premise is combining nature and art to provide an escape from the everyday stresses encountered in these professions. Experiences include full day excursions into the mountains and half day trips to various parks located in Calgary. All supplies are provided as well as painting instruction at no cost to participants. Filling out a short survey to help refine the program is the only required commitment.
