Meet the CBHM Team

Ebony Cobb

Ebony Cobb is a devoted woman of faith, and a member of Ezekiel Baptist Church, where she faithfully serves and continue to grow spiritually and elevating her Fear in the Lord Jesus Christ. Ebony is resilient, she finds her strength, healing and release through life challenges. Her favorite scripture is Galatians 2:20, "I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me." Which reminds her that her life is rooted in Christ. Her favorite song is "Jesus Is All" by Rev. Clay Evans feat The Fellowship Baptist Choir. Ebony is grateful to God's transforming power and is excited to continue growing and serving through Jesus Christ and being a part of Chosen By Him Ministry.

Jenneen Jenkins

Greetings from Jenneen Jenkins. She is a mother of 3 adult children, and she has lived through many life experiences that have allowed her to thank GOD for the beautiful journey He has her on.

In her words...

I have been a follower of YESHUA for 30 years, but 3 years ago, I was spiritually rebirthed again. I say “rebirthed” because although I always loved GOD, shared GOD, and knew I was called by GOD, it was during my divine encounter with the “GREAT I AM” that everything changed.

That encounter awakened me spiritually in a way I had never experienced before. Every fear, every season of stagnation, and every life trial was met with the undeniable presence and power of GOD. It was an awakening that transformed my heart, my faith, and my walk with Him.

If you have already experienced your divine encounter, I celebrate you. And for those who have not yet experienced it, know that nothing is wrong. Your divine appointment simply has not happened yet.

So always remember what your sister Jenneen says: “It’s unexplainable, yet so beautiful.”

Happy rebirthing on this spiritual journey of life, my sisters.

Love, Peace, Humility & Gifts upon You

Your Sister Jenneen, Romans 5:1-6

Valerie Cook Henry

Valerie Cook Henry, originally from Philadelphia, grew up with seven siblings raised by Lawrence James and Margie Rose Cook. She is the mother of two adult sons and known as "Momma Love" to her daughter-in-law and "Mimi" to her grandson, Jaxon. Valerie values family highly and spends much of her time nurturing relationships with loved ones.

Valerie earned degrees from Millersville and Temple University. She worked at Ches Penn Health Services, Navy Family Services Center, and led Delaware County Family Centers until retiring in 2019. Since then, she remains active in childcare, supporting children.

Valerie was introduced to her faith and its guiding principles from a young age. Her beliefs play a central role in shaping her values and actions. She acknowledges areas for personal growth and is committed to continuous self-improvement, seeking to align her life with her convictions and maintain readiness for opportunities that align with her purpose.

While not quoted in its entirety, Luke 12:48 notes that "to whom much is given, much will be required." In line with this principle, Valerie is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., a public service organization, and holds the position of school board director within the William Penn School District. Additionally, wherever she is called, Valerie remains actively involved in ministry.

Valerie's life verse is Romans 8:28

Andrea M. V. Clarke

Andrea M. V. Clarke is the Founder, CEO of Chosen by Him Ministry (CBHM). CBHM ministry was spoken into her spirit on October 5, 2025 in the kitchen while preparing dinner for her mother who is living with dementia (more to come about her full story...) Andrea has been ministering the word of God in some capacity since the age of 14. It is humbling and revelatory, that on this the weekend of her 55th birthday that CBHM would be birthed. Her passion is to encourage the people of God, particularly women, about actualizing their God given purpose and potential. She is the youngest of 4 and is again humbled by the fact that God would choose her to take care of her mother in this final chapter of her life; but also that God would entrust her with this ministry endeavor; “a trust” that Andrea does not take lightly. She is eternally grateful to the Father for this assignment and those He has assigned to her as a spiritual support system for this birthing: Ebony, Jenneen, (Jovanne), and Valerie for such a time as this. Congratulations “It’s a Ministry!!!” We are RELEASED!

Andrea’s life verse is Proverbs 3:5-6

Roundtable Discussion: “This is Her-Story...”

Revelation 12:11a

“And they overcame by the blood of the lamb, and by the word of their testimony...”

3 women share their personal testimonies of how through the posture of Surrender, they allowed the work of the Holy Spirit to transform their lives to a life committed and dedicated to the Lord. This segment will be facilitated by CBHM ministry team member Valerie Cook Henry. Valerie is the daughter of the King and is passionate about her service to the Lord. Valerie will facilitate the discussion as these daughters of the King tell “their story...”

Valerie Cook Henry, Facilitator

Our Roundtable Sisters Are:

Minister Chaundelle (Pebbles) Russell

Chaundelle (Pebbles) Russell is a mother, grandmother, nurse, and founder of the ministry called Journey to Deliverance TRH. She has years of ministry involvement in evangelism, teaching and training. She personally knows the need that people have for total deliverance and healing. She is a minister at the Glorious Life Worth Living Church in Wilmington, Delaware.

Nicole (Nikki) Culmer

My name is Nicole "aka Nikki" Culmer. I am 50 years old & I am a proud grandmother of 9. Currently, I am writing a book about my life and how God has brought me through every season & "chapter" of my life.

But the most important thing I want people to know and remember about me is that I am a woman of GOD. I love the Lord and his people and I'm serious about doing the Lords will.

Veronica (Ronnie) White

My name is Veronica L. White, and I'm from Philadelphia. I attended the Philadelphia Public School System, which shaped my academic and personal growth. As a middle child, I developed resilience, compassion, and adaptability—traits that still guide me. I'm a devoted mother of an adult daughter living in West Oak Lane. I earned degrees from Millersville and Lincoln Universities, which prepared me for my current work with the City of Philadelphia.

Traveling is my passion—I love experiencing new cultures and places. My trip from Cape Town to Zimbabwe included five safaris and stunning views of Victoria Falls, a highlight for me. I also enjoy relaxing on Caribbean beaches in warm weather. Besides traveling, I value time with my family and trying new experiences. I like outdoor activities—swimming, walking, hiking, gardening—and enjoy baking and creative cooking.

Community involvement is important to me: I've served as a committee person, block captain, and am an active member of the Quaker City Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated, contributing to service and sisterhood.

Learning, exploration, family, and community guide my life. I am dedicated to ongoing growth and meaningful impact.

Preacher for the Evening

Rev. Dr. Robin R. Whaley

Pastor Robin R. Whaley is a devoted woman of faith and Senior Pastor of Restoration New Life Ministries in Philadelphia. Known for her compassion, integrity, and servant leadership, she is committed to spiritual growth, practical teaching, and transforming lives through God's Word.

A Philadelphia native, Pastor Whaley accepted Christ at 14 and preached her first sermon in 1983 while a student at Millersville University. She served 17 years in leadership at Faith Tabernacle Church of the Living God before being ordained and installed as Pastor in 2001.

Her ministry emphasizes restoration, discipleship, and community impact, with outreach partnerships across the region. Pastor Whaley holds an Honorary Doctor of Divinity and multiple academic degrees in theology, administration, and organizational leadership. She also serves on several community and advisory boards.

Professionally, she has served more than 38 years with the Defense Logistics Agency, where she is currently Customer Operations Division Chief supporting global military feeding operations.

Andrea M. V. Clarke

Andrea M. V. Clarke describes herself as “a daughter of the King!” Her passion is encouraging God’s people in every way to include a little humor. Andrea preached her first sermon at the age of 14 titled “After Revival, what next?” Serving the Lord and the people of God is her passion. She answered the call to ministry in 1993 where she received her local minister’s license under the leadership and tutelage of the Late Dedra Copeland, Christ Our Redeemer Freewill Baptist Church. She subsequently was ordained as a Youth Pastor and served in the role of Assistant Pastor under the late Pastors Horace and Dedra Copeland.

Currently, she has the privilege of serving as the Southeast Regional Director in the Office of Children, Youth, and Families within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania where she has worked for the past 25 years. She is grateful that the Lord entrusts her to lead His people. Chosen By Him Ministry is the recent assignment the Lord has given her. As she endeavors to do the work of the Father, she encourages His people to read the word of God and apply it appropriately to live a life aligned with God’s will.

“Work the word; and watch the word work!!!”

So, what is next for Andrea? Stay tuned. God is still writing her story...

Dana Sanders

Dana Sanders is the mother of two adult children, Danyelle and Wendall. She is a proud graduate of the Philadelphia High School for Girls, where she earned Cum Laude honors.

As a young adult, Dana felt a deep longing in her heart—an awareness that something essential was missing. At 27, she recognized that God was calling her to Himself, and she surrendered her life to Christ. Shortly afterward, she became a member of The Ezekiel Baptist Church, where she faithfully served as a Deaconess.

Today, Dana continues to serve with gratitude and devotion. She is an active member of the Christian Education Committee, a co-teacher in the Women’s Sunday School class, and the Leader of the Women’s Fellowship. She considers it a blessing that the Lord has chosen to use her in these ministries.

Dana’s life has long been anchored in the promise of Jeremiah 29:11: “For I know the plans I have for you... plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a future and a hope.” This verse shaped her journey and sustained her faith. Recently, the Lord has impressed a new scripture on her heart—Psalm 34:8: “Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him.”

Through every season, Dana testifies to this truth: God is good.

Krystal Carter

Krystal Carter is a Licensed Professional Counselor and the founder of Wellspring Counseling and Consulting, where she provides virtual therapy to women across Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Maryland. She holds a master's degree in clinical health and counseling psychology from the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine and serves on its Alumni Board as President-Elect. With over 15 years of experience, she supports women navigating anxiety, depression, grief, and life transitions, helping them grow into more grounded and resilient versions of themselves. Through her clinical work and leadership experience, Krystal brings a compassionate and practical approach to helping women move from overwhelm to clarity and from burnout to a more balanced, intentional life. She is especially passionate about walking alongside women as they deepen their faith, trust God in the midst of life's challenges, and experience a lasting sense of peace that is not dependent on their circumstances. At the heart of her work is a desire to help women step into their identity with confidence, live with intention, and move forward with a renewed sense of purpose. She lives with her husband and their three children and loves spending time with her family.

Ministering Through Creative Arts

Courtney Coleman

Courtney Coleman has been praise dancing in church since she was a little girl, using movement as a way to worship and connect deeply with God. She is a dedicated member of Serenity Christian Worship Center, Inc. and has had the opportunity to minister alongside several dance ministries throughout her journey growing up. Through a powerful blend of liturgical dance and mime, she ministers the message of Jesus Christ by inviting others to eavesdrop on her personal conversations with God through expressive worship. Her mission is to encourage, inspire, and lead souls to Christ through the ministry of dance, allowing every performance to become a testimony of faith, healing, and God's love.

Kimberly D. Williams

Kimberly D. Williams is a native of Southwest Philadelphia who resides in Washington DC. She is a proud graduate of the University of Pittsburgh currently working as a Business Process, HR and Analytics leader for Montgomery County MD. Her true love has always been the Arts. She is proud to return home and share her creative expression through poetry to glorify the one who first loved her.... Christ!

Diane (Dee) Burnett

Meet Diane known as “Dee” or “Ms. Dee.” One of the passions in my life is working with and teaching young children. I thank God for that opportunity for many years of working as a teacher in Early Childhood Education. Another passion that is near and dear to my heart is in the Arts, acting and especially dance. Once again, I thank God for blessing me with the gift to minister through Mime. I am blessed to minister God’s word not by “spoken words” but through my hands, body movement and dramatic expression to encourage, uplift and bless others.

Michelle Ford

“Lisay” Michelle is the youngest of 15 children and she has 7 children of her own. She moved to Philadelphia almost 8 years ago to be closer to one of her sons who was dealing with personal health issues. Michelle attended nursing school and became a LPN, which gave her the training needed to care for her son who has Suda epilepsy. She has been writing and reciting poetry for over 20 years. Her children and Maya Angelou were the two important factors of this journey. She started speaking in churches when her mother asked her to and that opened the doors for her to speak at other churches.

“Thank you for this opportunity...”

CBHM Intercessor & Prayer Covering

Penina Davis

Penina Davis “affectionately known to many as Mom Davis”. Mom Davis states that family means everything to her and she loves spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She enjoys attending church services, prayer meetings, bible study, and fellowship luncheons, as well as ministering to residents in the nursing home. As a prayer warrior in the army of the Lord, mom Davis is passionate about encouraging others and sharing God's love. She affirms that "God has been faithful to me and my family, and I love Him with all my heart." Her life verse is "The LORD is my light and my salvation-whom shall, I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life-of whom should I be afraid?" Psalm 27:1(HCSB)
