

ISRAEL IN THE NEWS – One Israeli's Perspective

Join Rabbi
Hannah Estrin,
a Jerusalem resident,
for a timely and
thought-provoking
conversation on the week's news from Israel.

Together, we'll explore the stories making headlines — and the Jewish concerns, ethical questions, and Zionist values that underlie them. In this challenging post-October 7th moment, we'll engage deeply with the evolving discourse around liberal Zionism, antisemitism, and the critiques of Israel and Zionism from both within and beyond the Jewish world. Come ready to listen, learn, question, and wrestle with the complexities of this critical time for Am Yisrael.
