Precious Angels' vision is that every child will receive a standard-driven program which will enhance their emotional, social, spiritual, physical and academic growth and development. Our goal is to provide a strong foundation for success. It is our mission to provide a comprehensive educational program to all our stakeholders. We believe that our children come first, and we need the support of our parents and community as our partners. To ensure that our classrooms are striving toward success for all children, we have instructional leaders who are qualified to teach our children. Our teachers are devoted, caring and loving toward the children and community at large. We are constantly seeking the support of our entire community to ensure the success of our children and parents.

In our efforts to deliver to wonderful learning experience to our children, our classroom settings are equipped with age appropriate required materials and equipment to meet the needs of every child. The classroom arrangements allow our children to safely explore their environment as they travel to the various learning centers to engage in free play activities. The children interact with each other and their teachers in the following areas: blocks, dramatic play, science, art, music, sand and water, and the library. The children's free play experiences foster their emotional, social, physical, and intellectual growth and development. Children with special needs are accommodated as needed. Our doors are open to outside community health specialists, therapist, social workers, story tellers, grandparents and others who desire or need to work with our children during our hours of operation.

Precious Angels' teachers and directors are required to participate in ongoing professional development throughout the year. The professional development helps them to strengthen their knowledge and skills in the academic domains outlined in the PA Early Childhood Education standards. The training also keeps them abreast of the current issues and trends in the field of Early Childhood Education. Precious Angels reaches out to provide our parents with empowerment seminars on topics such as, Educating Your Child, Buying Your First Home, Insurance and Investing, and Financial Planning. We also keep educational child related literature available for our parents and lists of educational activities.

Our team at Precious Angles maintains membership in various organizations to enrich our professional growth and to stay informed of government legislation that affect the child care industry. We are members of the following organizations: Pennsylvania Child Care Association, Delaware Valley Council of Early Care and Learning, Northwest Interfaith Movement, National Child Care Association, PA Keystone Stars, and The United Way.

Precious Angels is a Three Star Center because the educational program is standard driven. We educate infants to five years throughout the year. Our program follows the guidelines of the Pennsylvania State Standards and Keystone Stars. We use the Creative Curriculum to assist in planning meaningful activities which are instrumental in the developmental growth of all our children. In order to ensure that our children are developing accordingly, our program uses Ages and Stages as a monitoring system, which allows teachers and parents to work collectively for the success of their child's overall development.

As an Early Childhood Educational program we will always focus on building a strong foundation of learning for the children. We focus on making sure that parents and the community at large are an intricate part of our program. We are a family oriented childcare center that builds personal relationships with our families. This is also evident through our website which is a means of connecting with our families and making our services available to the community.

Precious Angels also writes proposals for grants and tries to connect with organizations for funds to help support our continued efforts to maintain a high quality program according to the Keystone Stars standards. Therefore, Precious Angels must charge appropriately for the high-end, high-quality education and care-giving services we offer. Our revenue structure has to support our cost structure, so the salaries we pay to assure quality services must be balanced by the revenue we charge. The quality of our services will support the prices we charge. We want to always be in a position to give our parents more than they expect. We pride ourselves on being known as a child care learning center that does more for families than just care for children.
