POWHATAN NATION TRIBAL CITIZENSHIP ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

This is an official tribal government form and by filling and submitting this application you are acknowledging that enrolling as a citizen of the Powhatan Nation of American Indians is an immense honor and privilege reserved for those who have inherited the eligibility by birthright as an American Indian by blood.

By completing this application, you are seeking to join an enduring legacy stretching back centuries to the time of the legendary encounter between the Great Chief Wahunsenecaw and his legendary tribal Confederacy and the first English colonists of Jamestown. Citizenship in the Powhatan Nation of American Indians is a blood tie to history, connecting you to the destiny of this land and by signing this form you are agreeing to treat it as such and honor the tribe as a member and for the betterment of your new home in our tribal family.

To qualify for citizenship in The Powhatan Nation of American Indians, you must provide comprehensive genealogical documentation confirming an unbroken chain of descent from a member of the Powhatan Nation or one of the original 32+ sub tribes and affiliate tribal communities under the original Powhatan Confederacy. Acceptable evidence includes official records such as:

- Census records
- Birth/death certificates
- Scholarly/historical publications
- Old family Bible records
- Old church records

Please ensure you can verify each generation linking you to a Powhatan ancestor with supporting documentation. Incomplete applications cannot be processed. Only send copies no original documents. Submit application packet via mail or email (email is much faster).
