ROADS AND EQUIPMENT: Put spreader and wing plow on truck 8, undercoated truck 10, greased loader, grader and trucks, put spreader in 10 and new brake valve on loader, put sand in shed in pit, cleaned area

ZONING AND BUILDING: None

CORRESPONDENCE: None

OLD BUSINESS:

- Supervisor Mark Sander answered a previous question from resident Gerri Wellington about advertising township resolutions: PSATS policy and research director confirmed townships aren't required to advertise resolutions before voting by supervisors

NEW BUSINESS:

- An expected invoice wasn't received, discussion tabled

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF VISITORS: William Wellington, Jack Hasbrouck/Corry Journal, Lloyd Whitman, Cooper Hodak

- Mr. Wellington asserts that PSATS is nothing more than an association that taxpayers pay for and the township shouldn't be relying on an association for their information
- Mr. Wellington commented he didn't know how the township got away with meeting before a regular meeting, Chairman Sander replied the budget meeting was advertised as required in the Corry Journal, Mr. Wellington replied he doesn't get the paper; Mr. Wellington also questioned why the budget meeting was held in the office instead of the meeting room, Chairman Sander explained that's where the computer is and we need it to answer any questions that arise; Mr. Wellington was advised there will be a second budget meeting before the next regular meeting on Nov. 10, open to the public
- Mr. Whitman asked if the township had all their sand and salt for the winter: yes
- Mr. Wellington asked why the township didn't hold their budget meetings during regular meetings because that's what 'they' always did before, and it seems like the supervisors are holding backroom meetings without notifying the public; Chairman Sander reiterated the budget meeting on October 27 was advertised in the local paper as required
