WHAT IS AOS?

The Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) allows a person's immigration status to change while in the United States from a nonimmigrant or parolee (temporary) to an immigrant (permanent) if the person was inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States and meets all of the qualifying requirements for a green card (permanent residence) in a particular category. The common term for a change to permanent status from temporary or nonimmigrant status is adjustment of status (AOS).

The INA provides an individual with two main pathways to obtain permanent resident status:

- Adjustment of status is the process by which an eligible person already in the United States can obtain permanent resident status (green card) without having to return to their home country to complete immigrant visa processing.
- Consular processing is an alternative process for a person outside the United States (or who is in the United States but is ineligible or prefers not to adjust status) to obtain a visa abroad and enter the United States as a permanent resident. This avenue is known as consular processing.

How do I qualify?

Did you overstay your visa and recently married a US Citizen? Recently found out you are protected under 245ina? Recently did Advance Parole? or PIP? in order to be eligible for AOS :

1. The BENEFICIARY must be physically present in the United States.
2. The BENEFICIARY must have an immigrant visa available; (you do as an immediate relative)
3. The BENEFICIARY must have been inspected and lawfully admitted into the U.S. The USCIS considers that you have been "inspected" when you present yourself to an immigration officer at a U.S. port of entry. You are considered admitted when an officer informs you of such and you are allowed to enter the U.S.
4. The BENEFICIARY is not ineligible or restricted from adjusting status under INA § 245(c)(2), 8CFR § 245.1(b) or (c); and
5. The BENEFICIARY must be admissible

Please remember you to also make sure your record is clear and clean. Speak to an authorized legal representative if you have any questions regarding your eligibility to adjust. If you have Administratively Closed cases with immigration court, please STOP and speak to an attorney, your case needs to be terminated or dismissed before USCIS can take ANY action on your Green Card. Obtain your immigration records from CBP, USCIS, OBMI, FBI and review what records the government has for you.

A cover letter is like the introduction to a story. It helps immigration officers understand your situation by providing context for the documents you submit.

Here's why it's important:

1. Tells Your Story: It lets you explain your situation in your own words, making your application more personal.
2. Highlights Key Points: You can emphasize important details and address any concerns the officer might have.
3. Shows Respect: Writing a cover letter shows you take the process seriously and are committed to following immigration rules.
4. Makes Your Application Clearer: By organizing your information, it makes it easier for officers to understand your case and decide on your eligibility.

In short, a well-written cover letter makes your immigration application stronger and helps immigration officers see why you deserve approval.

PLEASE REMEMBER THIS IS A SAMPLE. A sample of someone being petitioned by her spouse and her spouse being able to sponsor for her financially, if you need to get a cosponsor some forms will be added, if you have 40 working credits then you might qualify for form Form I-864W instead of the regular Form-864. Please double check and make sure you qualify. Every case is different and some forms will vary, please inform yourself, obtain your records and keep up to date. This person is also requesting the Combo Card simply by sending the Forms I-131 and Form I-765 in this AOS package.

Interviews can be waived for well put together packets. So please organize your packets and send all required evidence!

A spousal beneficiary after successfully obtaining their Green Card can apply for citizenship at the 3 year mark, please be mindful of that and count all your presence inside the USA.

Congratulations now it's waiting time!
